from London the rock starting laren Ou de

q of our cutation

is a no people.

huddy our nonna's pales.

ose Davis se

ion, she i hadaa

the rest of as"

rrie, the Course

al : Lacquined a .

charges for the

oplethorpe's p

ाह्याच्य व र है

r ver attement

M-ppicitage a

RY.ITHU

ASSIFIE

. ند. ج

. .

, . K.W

30 m 202

.

· - 5

 $\cdot g(S)$

4 F.9

Old Man of Wimbledon Wins Again

John McEnroe, at 33 the oldest man left in the draw at Wimbledon, hitting a backhand against Pat

Cash in second-round action. The two unseeded former champions played a four-hour, five-set thriller, with McEuroe prevailing, 6-7 (3-7), 6-4, 6-7 (1-7), 6-3, 6-2. The top seed, Jim Courier, and 12th-seeded Andre Agassi also advanced, but Petr Korda, the sixth seed, was upset. Page 23.

Leadership Is Issue for Bush,

And Voters Find Him Lacking

with a clear mission, Mr. Bush said.

the world Mr. Bush had known so well dissolved around him. While he exercised his strong hand in foreign policy and left domestic issues

largely alone, the Communist men-ace vanished, the economy soured and Americans confronted a deepening social crisis that crystalized

As his term comes to an end in these circumstances, a crisis of leadership threatens Mr. Bush's re-election. The president himself in the Los Angeles riots in April.

Record

First in a series

But soon after his inauguration.

ESTABLISHED 1887

Israeli Settlers Fear a 'Revolution' Labor Vow on Autonomy Raises Doubts for Future By David Hoffman

Washington Past Service

KIRYAT ARBA, Israeli-Occupied West Bank — In the window of his tiny pizzeria, Yitzhak Tzarfati displays a picture of the late Israeli prime minister, Menachem Begin, a symbol of Zionist zeal for many residents of this Jewish settlement nestled in the

But the voices inside the pizza shop Thursday echoed with anxiety and worry in the aftermath of the election victory of the Labor Party leader, Yitzhak Rabin.

Mr. Rabin's pledge to curtail expansion of settlements in the territories and move swiftly toward an autonomy agreement for 1.7 million Palestinians in the West Bank and Gaza has unsettled many residents of Kiryat Arba — and touched off new protests from activists in the settler movement.

The activists said they hoped to frustrate Mr. Rabin's plans to reach an autonomy agreement with the Palestinians in six months, stepping up the pace of settlement before Mr. Rabin forms his government and staging demonstrations against a pact. In the recent past, some of the more militant activists have

"What is this autonomy? Nobody has explained it to us," said Mr. Tzarfati, 50. "From all these descriptions we don't know

'Some say we'll be kicked out," he said, "Some say we'll be slaughtered. Let someone stand up and explain it to us."

This confusion, and an undercurrent of fear about the future, ran through interviews with many of those who visited Mr. Tzarfati's shop in Kiryat Arba, a settlement of 5,000 people. According to election returns, the settlement cast a strong vote for Prime Minister Yitzhak Shamir of the Likud party in the

Mr. Rabin has said he would like to move within six months to an agreement for "real" autonomy for the Palestinians, while reserving defense and foreign policy functions for Israel and stopping short of an independent state.

Many residents here said they worried about what the practical impact of autonomy would be for settlers — such as whether there would be a Palestinian police force.

"It's not comfortable, it's not pleasant, this revolution." said Uzi Bettel. 30, who tends the settlement's gas station, referring to the Rabin victory, "Everyone was down and depressed when they heard the results of the election. When we need to protest, we will — within the law."

"Autonomy is not a simple thing," said Naomi Wasserman, 31, a teacher who worked for Likud during the campaign. "Rabin will do it, but it will take time. There will be a gely success."

Some residents took comfort from the largely successful from the lar in recent years to expand settlements in the territories, which now house about 110,000 Jewish settlers. Others took comfort in Mr. Rabin's reputation as a hard-liner, and his comment this week that no settlement would be uprooted, as was Yamit in the Sinai after the Camp David accords of 1978.

3 Israelis die in wave of violence. Page 2.

But many acknowledged that a new chapter was opening in the long struggle over the territories. In the elections, one of the pioneering settler parties. Tehiya failed to gain a single seat, and another nationalist party, Moledet, gained no new seats.

Elyakim Haetzni, a Tehiya member and one of the early settlers of Kiryat Arba, lost his seat in the Knesset, or parliament. In an interview Thursday, Mr. Haetzni said Israeli voters had turned against ideology, including that of the rightist parties that captured so much attention in the Likud era.

The Tehiya was the most ideological party," he said, "We paid

Even in the settlements, he said, Tehiya had a poor showing. Kiryat Arba was first settled in 1968 and expanded under Labor-led governments. The older settlements that developed in this period have generally been defined by Mr. Rabin as "security" outposts that he would retain. But Mr. Rabin has said he would curb expansion of "political" settlements erected by Likud in denser Arab population centers.

Mr. Haetzni said many settlers who fought Labor governments 1960s and 1970s became complacent during "the 15 fat

See ISRAEL, Page 8

For Delors, More Tenure, Less Power

By Tom Redburn

LISBON - Jacques Delors will be granted two more years as president of the EC Commission, but only after he is told that Brussels should no longer inter-vene so much in the affairs of the Community's 12 nations.

This is the most important outcome, officials and analysts say, that is likely to emerge from the two-day meeting of EC leaders that opens here Friday.

On Thursday, Britain became the last of the EC governments to agree formally to extend Mr. Delors' tenure. It thus joins its 11 partners in endorsing the man who not only stands as the most visible champion of the drive for European unity, but also serves as the lightning rod for grow-ing discontent over the degree of power to be exercised in Brussels.

"We do not want a centralized executive in Brussels which tries to insert its. tentacles into the nooks and crannies of national life," said Douglas Hurd, Britain's foreign secretary, in a recent state-

ized Community in which decisions are taken as close as possible to the people." Britain once stood largely alone in resisting the transfer of power to Brussels. But then Danish voters rejected the Maastricht treaty, which calls for the development of a European economic, monetary and political union. A new mood has since begun to emerge within the Com-

In response, Mr. Delors has shelved his plans for an early streamlining of EC institutions and has turned his attention to overcoming skepticism about excessive

Ironically, analysts say, the new emphasis on curbing the power of Brussels may end up enhancing rather than impeding the drive for European integration.

What Delors understands is that by cutting back oil unnecessary actions by Brussels, you actually lay the groundwork for building a more powerful, integrated Community operating on a higher plane," said Stanley Crossick, director of the Belmont European Policy Center in Brussels. "Indeed, only by spreading power away future of the EC. "We need a decentral- from the center will the EC be able to get anything important accomplished on its new agenda."

Mr. Delors plans to present leaders in Lisbon with the EC Commission's ideas for narrowing the scope of its own influence. The still-vague proposal, which EC officials discussed at a meeting Thursday in Brussels, is in part designed to deflect some of the stronger attacks on the Community's executive agency. At the same time, the focus on "subsidiarity" — the EC term for the goal of operating at the lowest level of government possible — would help Mr. Delors rein in some of the more wayward commissioners in his pur-

European summit leaders are expected to give Mr. Delors a green light to shake up the EC bureaucracy in the final two years of a tenure that is being extended to a full decade.

After years of tension between Brussels and London, Mr. Delors' apparent role reversal is leading to an unusual alliance with John Major, the British prime minis-

On Wednesday evening, when Mr. Ma-See EUROPE, Page 8

New Europe Fishes the Same Old Troubled Water

Compiled by Our Staff From Dispatches LONDON - A Royal Navy warship boarded French fishing vessels Thursday after accusations that the French had cut through trawling gear and assaulted English fishermen.

This is a violent and outrageous incident," the British fisheries minister, David Curry, told the House of Commons. "The British government will sustain pressure on the French government to make sure that their vessels are brought to

The incident occurred on the eve of a European Community summit meeting in

Lisbon that will consider ways to repair the damage of a Danish vote against European unity in a referendum this month. The violence seemed yet another example of unneighborliness among countries seeking to be better neighbors. The French have been burning our lambs, destroying our vegetables and now they seem to be fighting our fishermen," said David Clark, agriculture spokesman for the opposition Labor Party, referring to earlier incidents in which French farmers protested imports from British farms. The French government said that it was eager to avoid a diplomatic wrangle and that Breton trawlers appeared to be to René Glemarec, manager of the company that owns one of the French vessels, cited "some cohabitation problems" between French and British fishermen in the area, but said, "French fishermen are not

He said his boat had been "fishing normally in an authorized zone." Workers on three British trawlers accused French fishermen of cutting their nets and hurling pipes and chains at them,

See FISH, Page 8

11 Nations On Black Sea Sign Alliance On Economy

Russia and 10 Others Vow in Istanbul to Seek End to Regional Strife

ISTANBUL - Leaders of 11 nations, including six former Soviet republics, signed a Black Sea economic cooperation pact here on Thursday, and they pledged to end regional conflicts that threaten the Turkish-inspired cooperation plan.

We are dealing not just with economic but also with political cooperation and our com-mon will to end bloodshed in this basin," President Boris N. Yeltsin of Russia said at a news conference.

He dismissed calls by Eduard A. Shevardnadze, the Georgian leader, for an elaborate Black Sea organization that would establish collective security arrangements.

'We don't want any more bureaucracies," Mr. Yeltsin said.

Prime Minister Suleyman Demirel, host of the meeting at a renovated Ottoman palace overlooking the Bosphorus, said such disputes did not have to block cooperation. He cited his own problems with Greece, a member of the group.

"The disputes of today may not be there had being the tomorrow," the Turkish leader said, hailing the signing of the declaration as a historic day for Turkey and the Black Sea region.

The pact, covering a market of 400 million people, aims for cooperation in energy, transportation, communications, information and ecology, as well as the establishment of a joint investment bank.

The financial strains arising from the former Soviet bloc's transition to a market economy and the lack of investment capital were expected to slow progress.

Mr. Demirel said the ultimate goal was a free movement of people, goods and services to stimulate private-sector activity and the creation of a Black Sea zone that would complement the European Community.

Albania was accepted as a founding member, along with Armenia, Azerbaijan, Bulgaria, Georgia, Greece, Moldova, Romania, Russia, Turkey and Ukraine.

In speeches, leaders of the 11 countries acknowledged that ethnic and territorial conflicts clouded the prospects of economic cooperation. President Abulfaz Elchibey of Azerbaijan and the Armenian president, Levon Ter-Petro-

sian, avoided mention of the war between their countries over the Nagorno-Karabakh enclave. The Moldovan leader, Mircea I. Snegur, demanded that all outside troops leave the trans-

Dniestr region, where battles between Slavic secessionists and Moldovans have taken 500 Moldova accuses regular Russian troops of joining in the fighting for an independent re-

Mr. Snegur and Mr. Yeltsin were to hold four-way peace talks with President Leonid M. Kravchuk of Ukraine and President Ion Iliescu of Romania.

Mr. Shevardnadze, who survived a coup attempt on Wednesday by supporters of Zviad Ghamsakurdia, the deposed Tbilisi leader, said the Black Sea states should take collective action on security matters. "We need security guarantees in a Black Sea region where the seeds of very dangerous mis-Mr. Shevardnadze said the Black Sea Fleet, understandings are being sown," he stressed. the object of intense rivalry between Russia, Ukraine and others, should be reduced and parceled out on a quota basis. 'I think we should think about reducing the

See PACT, Page 2

Sarajevo Looks to U.S., Not EC Few in Dying City Expect 'European Solution'

By John F. Burns New York Times Service and Joel Brinkley

New York Times Service
WASHINGTON — As George

Bush accepted the Republican presidential nomination on Aug.

18, 1988, he told thousands of cheering convention delegates that his goal as president would be to pick up where Ronald Reagan left life is to complete the mission we started in 1980," he declared.

. It seemed a fitting declaration

for a man who told the convention that he had spent his life carrying out assignments. As a World War

Il pilot, the first American envoy to

Communist China, Republican

Party chairman, director of central

The most important work of my

SARAJEVO, Bosnia-Herzegovina — As the siege of Sarajevo by Serbs intensifies and the city descends ever deeper into a nightmare of hunger, destruction and death, people here look desperately to the outside

Although Sarajevo is in Europe, barely two hours' flying time from Bonn, Paris or London, virtually no one in the basement bunkers that shelter tens of thousands of people here speaks of a "European

A dozen times each day, an American reporter is confronted by people pleading that he send a message to President George Bush, saying that nothing short of an American-led military intervention can save the

After Secretary of State James A. Baker 3d testified about Sarajevo's plight before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, anyone with a television set timed into reports a day later about his appearance. Mr. Baker spoke bluntly, describing the indiscriminate ferocity of Serbian attacks on civilians in Sarajevo and other parts of this newly independent state as "barbarism at its worst extreme."

He also warned that the United States would not allow continued obstruction of United Nations efforts to begin an emergency airlift of food and medicine. For the first time since the heaviest Serbian shelling made his argument for another term in an interview in the Oval

"In the final analysis." Mr. Bush said after 30 minutes of discussing his record, "people are going to say,

Who do you want sitting at that desk? Who has the temperament?

Who has the experience? Who do

Rising from his chair, pushing his pen back into his shirt pocket

and putting on his glasses to show his guests out, his final words were confident: "That's why I'm going to win this election. You watch."

But as voters begin to pass judg-ment on the very terms Mr. Bush outlined -his record and his abili-

See BUSH, Page 8

Office this week.

we trust?

NEWS ANALYSIS

of the city's residential areas began last month, the news from Washington gave a boost to the city's sagging morale.

It was unclear what action the United States would be willing to take to halt the Serbian attacks so food and medicine could begin flowing into the city.

But many people drew hope from Mr. Baker's remarks, saying they detected a new willingness by Washington to get tough even if it was not yet ready to

The anxiety with which Washington's policy is monitored in Sarajevo reflects a wide belief that time is running out for an international rescue effort, and See BOSNIA, Page 2

From the left: Mircea Snegur, Moldova; Leonid Kravchuk, Ukraine; Eduard Shevardnadze, Georgia; Levon Ter-Petrosian, Armenia; Boris Yeltsin, Russia;

Ion Iliescu, Romania; Suleyman Demirel, Turkey; Zhelyu Zhelev, Bulgaria; Sali Berisha, Albania; Constantine Mitsotakis, Greece; Abulfaz Elchibey, Azerbaijan,

Kiosk

Bomb Explodes in London's City

LONDON (AP) - A bomb blast wrecked a car outside the Chase Manhattan Bank and sent a plume of smoke over London's financial district Thursday evening, but the police said no one had been

They said someone using an Irish Republican Army code word telephoned after the explosion of the bomb, which had been left in a briefcase under a white Mercedes. The BBC said it had received a call in the name of the IRA 10 minutes after the explosion.

Business/Finance British Petroleum's chairman Page 15. resigned.

Crossword

DM

1,5368 Pound 1.898 125.17

By Erik Ipsen International Revald Tribune DRIFFIELD, England -- Shunned for years as dirty, smelly and financially foolish, pig farming in Britain has never won any popularity contests with the nation's farmers much less their leeward neigh-

Yet, bereft even of that lifeblood of much of European farming, government subsidies, Britain's pig breeders have done something remarkable: They have prospered. When it comes to pig genetics Britain is at the porcine pinnacle.

"It is the only livestock species where we do indeed have the edge," said Harry Hope, livestock editor of Farmers' Weekly.

That is not news to the Curtis family of Yorkshire

The Next-Generation Pig: Living Off the Lean of the Land opment Co., the nation's second-largest breeder, has prospered mightily since its inception in 1969 to the point where they market their own pig-production computer programs and can afford to launch new pig breeds in tony London restaurants and ferry breeding stock by the jumbo planeload to America every six weeks. NPD, with its own public relations person, and an executive car park sprinkled with BMWs and Bentleys is a pig breeder where the sweet > that of the piggery next door. With NPD pigs now doing their profligate best in 28 countries and with full-fledged franchise operations up and squealing in eight countries from the Philippines to Italy, the family-owned NPD suffers no shortage of ambitions.

"We aim to be a McDonald's in pigs," said David Curtis, who along with his brother Stephen is an NPD joint managing director. But he confesses that fellow first-class passengers still fall out of their chairs laughing when they discover the nature of his

Last month at the Café Royal in London his competitors were definitely not amused when Mr. Curtis, as marketing director, parted the curtain on his newest product, the Manor Meishan pig, scent of prosperity almost, but not quite, overpowers scrubbed and powdered to a pinkish perfection for the occasion. The adulatory color video that accompanied the unveiling solemnly proclaimed the animal "a quantum leap in pig productivity" and went on to proclaim that it would "take the world pig industry into the 21st century."

What NPD's new pig has is a strong libido and,

"It's no good producing 18 piglets if you have only got 14 teats as most pigs do," explained Rosetta Nicholson, NPD's PR person. With all that in the way of what pig people call "motherability" going for it, the Manor Meishan is reckoned to be able to produce 30 piglets per annum versus 25 for the best of other preeds.

That crucial advance came via China, which shipped a load of its traditional Meishan pigs to Britain nearly a decade ago. Ever since, breeders have been struggling to combine its obvious anatomical attributes with the leanness of state-of-the-art British pigs. Merely multiplying Meishans was always a nonstarter.

It's farry, the meat on the damn thing is terrible. See SWINE, Page 17

INTERNATIONAL HERALD TRIBUNE

SARAJEVO, Bosnia-Herzegovina — Bosnian Serbs have pledged sets in Sarajevo and to put their heavy weapons around the city under United Nations observation. a zie, the UN commander in Saraievo, made the announcement of a promise of restraint by Serbian forces after a relatively quiet night in the Bosnian capital of 300,000 people, which has been besieged for nearly three months.

progress Thursday in talks held in Strasbourg, France, on ending the ethnic lighting that has killed thousands of Serbs, Croatians and Muslims during the last year.

EC-sponsored peace process had een "disheartening."

Lord Carrington held separate meetings with the Serbian president, Slobodan Milosevic; the Cro-Haris Sīlaidzic.

Milosevic had refused to recognize Bosnia-Herzegovina as a sovereign state and had rebuffed EC attempts to hold talks on the future of the Kosovo region of Serbia, where conference. There has got to be a solution in the end." There were these other developments Thursday: Soaring temperatures posed an among the 300,000 people trapped in Sarajevo with almost no food, water or power.

porter for Sarajevo radio said. "It's getting hotter and hotter. So we are to stop firing on nonmilitary tar- getting very alraid of an epidemic."

• A UN spokesman said the Croatian Army was jeopardizing peacekeeping efforts in that former N official said Thursday. Yugoslav republic by attacking a Major General Lewis MacKen-Serbian-held region.

EC truce monitors in Croatia estimated that at least 150 people had been killed and 300 wounded in the last few days.

• Student protests in Belgrade demanding the removal of President Milosevic entered an 11th day and spread to the Serbian cities of Novi Sad, Kragujevac and Nis, news reports said.

Opposition to Mr. Milosevic has been growing since UN economic sanctions were imposed on Serbia on May 30 for its role in the ethnic war in Bosnia.

Fighting in Sarajevo had been particularly fierce up to Thursday, with scores of civilians killed or wounded in pitched battles between Serbian forces and the city's Muslim-led defenders.

"As a result of confrontations over the past few days, the Serbs have decided to unilaterally and unconditionally stop firing on nonmilitary targets," General Mac-Kenzie said. He added that they had pledged to place their heavy weapons under UN observation.

"If the first step is successful, they will move artillery and mor-tars even further from the city," he said. "This is a significant commitment by the Serbs." "If it fails because of their action," the general added, "it will be a very serious setback to Serbian General MacKenzie said he hoped that firing on nonmilitary targets would stop immediately. He added it that it would take two to three days to put Serbian heavy weapons under UN supervision. Allowing UN peacekeepers to monitor Serbian heavy weapons in the hills around Sarajevo is a pre-condition for reopening the city's airport for humanitarian relief General MacKenzie has said that fighting must stop for at least 48 hours before UN forces would

An attack two weeks ago by Bosof the city center, provided the defenders with a new supply of mor-

the following day when the Serbislav Air Force bombed the strong-

Now, a force of about 5,000 men

ply of replacements.

ians will continue dying, no matter or not.

whether the Americans bring food

"To end this suffering. I make this plea to the United States," he went on "Realize that the only solution is to deploy the Sixth Fleet

in the Adriatic, impose an air blockade over Bosnia-Herzegovina, and deliver an ultimatum to Serbia that it must withdraw all units from our territory, with all

"If they don't do it within the rescribed time limit," he went on.

let them suffer the consequences is the source of all this evil."

Crime Rate in Canada

Agence France-Presse

at the same rate as overall offenses.

for each 100,000 people during the

The incidence of violent crime rose and opened fire, a spokesman said.

Rose by 8% in 1991

-an air attack on Belgrade, which

Some of the supplies were lost tars and other ammunition.

Backing for Paris AIDS Claim

A Serbian fighter resting during a hall in combat in the eastern Bosnian town of Foca.

Ex-Official Says Gallo Misled Washington on Research

Pasteur Institute.

By Philip J. Hilts New York Times Service

WASHINGTON - A former senior health official says the U.S. government was misled by Dr. Robert Gallo's claim to have been the sole discoverer of the cause of AIDS, and that now the United States has a "moral duty" to turn over the credit and the royalties to the French.

Comments by C. McClain Haddow, the former official, in recent interviews are part of the increasing pressure being put on the government to reverse its stand behind Dr. Gallo.

At the same time, lawyers for the Pasteur Institute in Paris are lobbying officials of the White House and Department of Health and Human Services. And two independent bodies have attacked Dr. Gallo and what they said was the government's limp investigation.

hold with two fighter-bombers. The government of Bosnia-Her-"Had we known then what we know today, we zegovina, which is led by Muslims would have had a moral obligation to allow the but includes Croats and Serbs. French to have all the royalties," said Mr. Hadmade very few preparations for the dow, chief of staff at the Department of Health siege. When it began, there was no local army as such, only a diversity and Human Services from 1983 to 1987. "We have no right to them." of armed groups acting on their

He said that senior department officials doubted Dr. Gallo's version of events and were aware that, despite his vehement denials, his laboratory had worked with a virus sent to him by the French.

is holding the city against much greater numbers of Serbs trans-Mr. Haddow's comments were corroborated by terred from the Yugoslav Army. an official who worked for him at the department The Serbian force is equipped with and was present in some of the meetings at the height of the controversy: Mary Martin, now spehowitzers, mortars, tank cannon and powerful anti-arcraft suns. cial assistant to the head of the department's The defenders, who have only Office of Civil Rights.

one or two tanks, about half a doz-In addition, some notes of attorneys for the department in 1985, when negotiations with the en artillery pieces and a handful of armored cars, face an enemy with French were taking place, refer to concerns about other overwhelming advantages, losing any court case.

including control of the surround-If it had been known then that Dr. Gallo had ing hills and an uninterrupted supused the French virus for a significant part of his work, that might have prevented him from claim-Although it has denied any ining credit for the discoveries leading to the creation volvement in the fighting, the govof a blood test to detect the virus in patients. ernment of Serbia has contin But Joseph Onek, attorney for Dr. Gallo. said

Wednesday that he did not believe Mr. Haddow

the same supply links that bol-stered the Yugoslav troops before was a credible source of information because he were ostensibly withdrawn was convicted six years ago of a conflict of interest from Bosnia-Herzegovina in May. while working at the Department of Health and After listening to Mr. Baker's testimony to the U.S. Senate about Human Services and served four months in prison. He nonetheless has been questioned in the last relief supplies, the defense minister two weeks by investigators looking into the case. in Bosnia-Herzegovina, Jerko At the same time, the Pasteur Institute is lobby-Doko, said in exasperation, "It's nothine!'

ing the U.S. government to turn over the royalties for the AIDS blood test to French scientists. The French laboratory has asked the government to surrender all of the estimated $50 million in past While Mr. Doko spoke, the windows of his office in the Presidency and future royalties from the blood test. The royal-Building shook from the impact of ties are now split between the two governments, with about $100,000 a year going to Dr. Gallo and "Listen to it!" he said. "Until they are forced to stop this, civil-

At the center of the conflict is the question of how far Dr. Gallo's team at the National Cancer an equal amount to Dr. Luc Montagnier of the Institute went in unacknowleged use of Dr. Montagnier's work in growing the AIDS virus and developing Dr. Gallo's version of the blood test. As many as six separate inquiries are now in rogress, investigating charges ranging from poor boratory leadership to perjury and patent fraud. The one completed investigation is that of the Office of Scientific Integrity at the National Institrates of Health. It concluded that Dr. Gallo did not commit misconduct, but that his subordinate, Dr. Mikulas Popovic, had.

but as soon as a new report trom une crince of Scientific Integrity surfaced a few weeks ago, it was branded a whitewash by critics. An independent panel of scientific experts, which reviewed the report at the request of the National Institutes of Health, wrote that the Office of Scientific Integrity had failed to understand "a pattern of behavior on Dr. Gallo's part that repeat-edly misrepresents, suppresses, and distorts data." The panel of experts, headed by Dr. Frederic Richards of Yale University, went on to say that Dr. Gallo's behavior "constitutes intellectual recklessness of a high degree — in essence, intellectual appropriation of the French viral isolate."

Dr. Gallo's lawyer called the charges "ludicrous." He said that, if Dr. Gallo is charged with "intellectual appropriation" for not giving credit to the French in his papers, then the French, too. are guilty, because they did not mention in their papers that Dr. Gallo helped them learn how to grow the virus as well.

The House subcommittee on oversight and inrestigations, headed by Representative John D. Dingell, Democrat of Michigan, also issued a critique of the finding by the Office of Scientific

It stated that the finding was "deeply flawed" and that some of its conclusions were "flatly refuted by the evidence.

While the U.S. government was trying in 1985 to resolve who should get credit for discoveries, Dr. Gallo tried to persuade officials that he and his coworkers alone were responsible for determining the cause of AIDS and making a blood test possi-

He told officials of the Department of Health and Human Services and others that, even though the French sent him their virus, he did not use it to further his work.

French emissaries visited the United States in 1985 to protest this position. They said they had been told by American scientists that Dr. Gallo had in fact used the French virus to start his own

Truce Is Set In Restive Region of Moldova

Compiled by Our Staff From Dispatcher ISTANBUL - The presidents Russia and Moldova agreed Thursday to an indefinite cease-fire in the Trans-Dniester region of Moldova and said a UN fact-finding mission would arrive by the end of the week. The agreement was reached after talks between Presidents Boris N. Yeltsin of Russia, Mircea I. Snegur of Moldova, Leonid M. Kravchuk of Ukraine and Ion Iliescn of Ro-

Mr. Snegur said the Moldovan parliament would consider granting a high degree of home rule to Trans-Dniester, where ethnic Russian and Ukrainian separatists have declared a republic.

He said the most important elements of the accord were the guarantees by Russia and Moldova, "personally made by the presi-dents, to preserve the cease-fire" that was declared Tuesday but not bonored

"At the request of the government of Moldova, observers from the United Nations will arrive on a fact-finding mission at the end of this week," Mr. Snegur said.

The talks took place at the 11nation Black Sea Economic Sumnit in Istanbul.

Several hundred people died in a battle for the Duiester town of Bendery last week. Mr. Snegur said his country was at war with Russia and accused the Russian 14th Army of backing the separatists from its bases on the east bank of the river.

Two Moldovan military helicopters were reported shot down overnight Thursday by anti-aircraft forces in the Trans-Duiester region as fighting in eastern Moldova con-

Russian radio said the helicop-ters were downed by units of the Russian 14th Army following several overflights during the night by Moldovan helicopters and military aircraft.

Interfax news agency, quoting the press center of the Trans-Dniester government, said 14th Army units fired anti-aircraft rockets and apparently brought down two aircraft in the Bendery region.

The 14th Army has said it remained neutral in the conflict in eastern Moldova, but Wednesday said it had monitored Trans-Dniester military aircraft overflights from Moldovan and Romanian ter-

Russian Army commanders have admitted that some of their officers may have taken part in the fighting without orders. Russians in Trans-Dniester oppose the government's moves toward unification with Ro-

Sporadic fighting continued in other parts of eastern Moldova. The authorities in Trans-Dniester rted two Cossack killed, while officials in Kishinev, the Moldovan capital, said two Moldovan police officers were killed in the clashes.

(AP, Reuters, AFP)

PACT: Black Sea Accord

(Continued from page 1)

fleet in the Black Sea," he said. "Each Black Sea country should accept some quota."

Mr. Yeltsin and Mr. Kravchuk agreed earlier in the week to leave most of the Black Sea Fleet temporarily under a unified command and to share costs. But that agreement merely delayed a solution.

Mr. Shevardnadze urged the signers of the Black Sea declaration to set up a committee to resolve conflicts and to guarantee borders.

The Georgian leader was the only one to call for regular meet-ings of foreign and defense ministers, as well as for committees on a host of subjects. He suggested that the Black Sea group establish a permanent secretariat in Istanbul.

The Turkish foreign minister. Hikmet Cetin, said Mr. Shevard nadze's proposals were realistic but Yugoslavia, which was to have been a founding member, was not invited to the meeting because of the civil war that has turned the Belgrade government into an international parish. Meanwhile, Iran, which is Turkey's rival for influence in the Muslim republics of the former Soviet Union, dismissed the Black Sea economic cooperation club as "just ink on paper." Tehran radio said Turkey and Greece lacked the strength to revi-talize the ailing economies of the nine former Communist nations. It said Turkey hoped to become a conduit for billions of dollars of aid by the United States, the European Community and Japan for the countries emerging from Communist rule. (Reuters, AP, AFP)

U.S. Aide in Berlin Gets 18 Months as KGB Spy

BERLIN — A former press spokesman at the U.S. military mission in Berlin was given an 18month suspended sentence Thursday for spying for the former Soviet KGB secret service.

South African-born Stephen Lanfer, who admitted that he had passed information to the KGB from 1977 to 1990, was also fined 20,000 Deutsche marks ($12,500).

WORLD BRIEFS

U.S. Congress Acting in Rail Strike
WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic leaders in the House of Representatives prepared legislation Thursday to impose an immediate 30-day cooling-off period in the nationwide rail shutdown. The bill could lead to

The shutdown began Wednesday with a machinists' strike against CSX binding arbitration. Transportation. The rest of the industry then shut down, citing the

Advanc

NEW ORLEANS - D

ord-holder May ord-mark was in a standard Carl Least standard Carl with Butch Remarks the U.S. Comments of the U.S. Co

mac are thought and the ten G-men with 12 street

pindips best hat pindips best hat graph unit western proced learned

maorid the teat co

menps the passa

ments the process of all $53 meters are seen

is reached that discussed

But that FU: Leve ...

in team grant has a long jump Evic

li also made up (2...... in asso means by the seam 21 (10) meters before for a characteristic base events. Lewis

Reyaulds the moni holes a ished second in his pion from Southern

Ominy Water to

THE IS ASSESSED.

ime since the

matching the service and

alds' time of 44.74. 4 22 10

best in history and tarners

the world this is the line

a than that of Dan-

1988 Olympic sto son the contract

pic champion.

477, while ive action - a

Antonio Peruzzea

and (mled ::) $20 - 145

Remolds was - To also

cears by the Internaliance

Athletic Federation and positive for starting of 1990 His suspense of the st

IL two days with the time to

If Revnolds does

said Wednesday maganitud

ademic submitter in in Court order allower all

Prenously, the 1.5

could not bette Similar ton back of the control

bds capiyang interigran

SIDELINES

Suspension of Harve

Is Made Permanent

NEW YORK NOT - 5:

that Steve Hone

Somer Fax Vincent

kee pricher's redering the Monday's decrees many first time a contract of the second manently suspended a mayer

drug-related matter

had been suspended see the viously, has entered a ---- attempted possession of course

The Houston Rockers and the SuperSonics will open the

93 NBA season in Youch

Nov. 7 and 8, marking the so.

time in three years the leasure beam its regular season in January

Salvatore (Toto) Schillaci.

World Cop hero who is a construct of the man inventors, signed a construct There was a state of the man in the opply with International Control

son luvenus reportadi 200

Sary Melrose, who has come Adirondack of the Ameri

Addrondack of the American codery League for three varieties and a coach of the New York, and the American codery League for three varieties and a coach of the New York, and the New York, and planed Daulton, the production of the phillies' catcher, up tend having who leads the National ain't over till the fat g

Quotable

min as a transfer for d season in the italian first amounced Thursday

For the Record

guished his opportunity major league baser :

Pennanent

per at the trials

de team along with the to term the U.S.O. == ...

4.69 Sieve Lewis the

the 100 last Samuell

sald moved of $ 50

4. mins its its

Powell at

problem of interlocking lines. The House speaker, Thomas S. Foley of Washington, said he wanted Congress to begin work on the bill immediately. In the Senate, the Democratic leader, George J. Mitchell of Maine, said he was prepared to schedule a quick vote. The legislation would require an arbitrator to impose a settlement after 30 days if the sides failed to reach an agreement.

Farmers' Roadblock Falls at Limoges.

PARIS (AP) — Policemen fired tear gas on Thursday to break up an rakes (Ar) — roncemen med tear gas on intristay to treat up an illegal demonstration by farmers who had been blocking a highway in southwestern France to protest cuts in agricultural subsidies agreed to by the European Community, the police said.

Three protesters were arrested in the predawn confrontation between the netternal police and about 200 farmers that the protesters were arrested in the predawn confrontation between the national police and about 300 farmers who had used tractors and trucks to block a road near Limoges. They were charged with participating in a banned demonstration, the police said. The French interior minister, Paul Quilès, earlier this week called on local officials to enforce laws against blocking public roadways.

Poll Finds South Koreans Still Wary

SEOUL (AP) — A majority of South Koreans believe that war between South and North Korea still is possible despite historic peace accords-adopted earlier this year, according to an opinion poll published Thurs.

The survey of 1,500 people, which had a margin of error of plus or minus 2.5 percentage points, showed 52 percent thought the possibility of a second Korean war exists, while 35 percent said the possibility was low-

In the survey, 41 percent supported the current level of U.S. troop strength in South Korea — about 34,000 — while 36.7 percent wanted reduction and restationing of the troops. Only 13 percent wanted their

Shuttle Starts Its Longest Flight Yet

CAPE CANAVERAL, Florida (AP) - Columbia roared into space with seven astronauts Thursday on the longest U.S. shoule flight yet, a 13-day mission that NASA hopes will lead to full-time stays in space. The 100-ton spaceship took off at 12:12 P.M., after a five-minute delay because of weather. During their flight, the astronants will grow crystals, study drops of fluid, set fires in sealed chambers and undergo medical tests to provide more data on how humans fare in weightlessness and withstand the stresses of gravity upon return.

The longest previous American shuttle flight was 10 days and 21 hours; by Columbia in 1990. The U.S. record — 84 days — belongs to the third and final Skylab mission, in 1973-74. The duration record is held by the

For the Record

David Swartz has been nominated as the U.S. ambassador to Belarus. He has served as charge d'affaires since Washington established diplomatic ties with Minsk in December. (AFP)

High temperatures in Athens combined with air pollution sent more than 200 people to hospitals with heart, respiratory and other problems. Wednesday and Thursday, health officials said. They attributed the high pollution to the lifting of restrictions on automobiles in the city centerduring university exams. Temperatures were around 37 degrees centigrade (99 Fahrenheit). AUS, military installation in the northern Black Sea region will be shut-next year, the Turkish Foreign Ministry announced Thursday. The post is a listening station, a source said. There are 487 U.S. personnel at the base, the U.S. Embassy said.

Correction

An article in Thursday's editions about the purchase of United Press' International by the Middle East Broadcasting Center Ltd. incorrectly described Arfan Nezameddin as head of the news operation. Stephen Marney is MBC's head of the news. Mr. Nezameddin is editorial

TRAVEL UPDATE

Lufthansa will remove first-class seats on domestic and European flights to save money but will keep them on intercontinental flights. In November it will remove 1,600 seats from 160 aircraft and will replacethem with narrower business-class seats.

The Dunch legislature approved the Schengen Convention, providing for free movement of people between signatory countries. The agreement, which was sharply debated in parliament, was approved Thursday, 123 to 23. The Netherlands is the fifth country to approve it. (AFP)

Japan Air Lines and South African Airways have agreed to coordinate their schedules to improve flight connections, a JAL spokesman said. Starting July 1, JAL's Tokyo-Houg Kong, Tokyo-Singapore and Tokyo-London flights will be timed to coincide with SAA's flights from the three emports to Johannesburg. (Reuters) U.S. transportation safety officials are considering stronger controls on sightseeing flights over the Grand Canyon after a string of fatal crashes, including one last week in which 10 people were killed.

(AP)

North America Europe London and Paris will be suntry and warm this weekend. The nice weather will occur at the eastern United States this western United States this western dand it may thun-deratorm once or twice, it chicago and Detroit will also be comewhat cooler than is typical for early summer, and it may thurstranger.

westered at Wimbledon the next few days will benefit the tennis tournament. A few thunderstorms, some accompanied by heavy downpours, will doubt Southeast Europe.

Typhoon from the pines to: pines toward Televan over the possibly bringing heavy rains to Talpal Summer will continue to get off to a slow start in . Seoul and Tokyo, as temperatures will be somewhat below normal.

High Low W. ... 17 R2 9 A8 C 20 A8 - 714 86 3
2 R9 21 (70) 22 R9 - 20 70 (75 m)
28 R2 16 A1 pc 21 73 (86 pc)
28 R2 16 A1 pc 21 73 (86 pc)
28 R2 12 E3 sh 24 75 (46 pc)
29 R3 E8 22 77 pc 30 A8 22 77 pc
30 A8 22 77 pc 30 A8 22 77 pc
30 A8 22 77 pc 30 A8 22 77 pc
30 A8 22 77 pc 30 A8 22 77 pc
30 A8 24 75 pc
30 A8 25 Pc
40 A8 25

UN official said Thursday.

He said that the president of Bosnia-Herzegovina, Alija Izetbe-govic, a Muslim, had welcomed the Serbian announcement but was skeptical of the pledges being carried out, following the breakdown of many agreements in almost three months of fighting.

Meanwhile, there was no sign of

The European Community me diator, Lord Carrington, said after the talks with leaders of the warring republics that his effort to revive an atian president, Franjo Tudjman; and the Bosnian foreign minister, Lord Carrington said that Mr.

ethnic Albanians are demanding "I think today was disheartening but we're going to go on trying, Lord Carrington said at a news

increasing threat of epidemic

"There are many dead bodies lying untended for days on the front

BOSNIA: Sarajevo Looks to U.S. nian government forces on a hillthat a delay of even a few weeks side stronghold at Zuc, about five may doom the city to Serbian capkilometers (three miles) northeast

Underlying the sense of urgency

is a terror of a potential replay of the reprisals reported in the Croatian city of Vukovar last November, when Serbs captured the town an 86-day siege. Gunmen went from house to house, pulling men, women and children from basements and shooting them. Already, fears of starvation haunt many families.

With each day, supplies of food dwindle and the prices of what remains on the market go higher, with some goods costing 10 times more than they did before the siege. Many families must venture into the streets during the bombardments to hunt for fresh supplies. On Monday, when 19 civilians wounded in one of the heaviest Serbian bombardments yet, some of the victims were out looking for bread and other food when they In the hospitals, some of which have been struck repeatedly by artillery and rocket fire, doctors and nurses do their own kind of foraging, searching for the medicines

they need to keep the wounded and sick alive. Makeshift solutions like

were killed and more than 100

cutting bedsheets into bandages have become commonplace. As the Serbian attacks grow in intensity, so do the numbers of seriously wounded, many of them with shrapnel wounds to the head and body that will cause permanent dis-

UNIVERSITY DEGREE BACHELORS - MASTERS - DOCTORATE For Work, Life and Academia (310) 471-0306 FAX: (310) 471-6456 Call or write for information Pacific Western University

> Havys New York Bar Just tell the taxi driver, "Sank 100 doe maa" ou rue Daunou (PARIS OPERA) Tel.: (1) 42 61 71 14

3 Israelis Die in Arab Attacks By Jackson Diehl

Washington Post Service
JERUSALEM — Israel suffered its first burst of violence on Thursday in the wake of elections this week. Two civilians were stabbed Yugoslav Army and Air Force to death in the Gaza Strip and a > in a West Bank shoot-out. The army said the two civilians, both residents of southern Israel, attacked near a warehouse south of Gaza City. One was killed instantly, and the other died later. Radio Israel said the two men soldier and three Palestinians died were merchants trying to arrange a business deal. It reported that the army was searching for four Palestinian suspects from the radical Islamic Hamas organization. In the West Bank village of OTTAWA - Crime rose by 8 Arabe, near Jenin, Israeli soldiers percent last year in Canada, the encountered five Palestinians cargovernment reported Thursday, rying weapons Thursday morning

In the battle, one soldier and A total of 10,697 overall offenses three of the Palestinians were and 1,097 violent crimes occurred killed, he said. Two Arabs escaped. The Israeli deaths were the first to be recorded in Arab-Israeli vio- out "political measures," including lence since the last week of May, progress in Palestinian negotia-when two soldiers and three civilians were killed, along with at least seven Arabs, in a rash of incidents that included two stabbings by Palestinians from Gaza. Following the earlier stabbings, the hard-line government of Prime Minister Yitzhak Shamir sealed off the Gaza Strip for nearly two weeks and then imposed tighter control on workers from Gaza.

Aviv suburb of Bat Yam, where a 15-year-old girl was killed. The violence became an election campaign issue, and Mr. Shamir was criticized by the Labor Party leader, Yitzhak Rabin, for not en-

At the same time, five days of against Arab attacks. Mr. Rabin, whose Labor Party went on to win the elections Tuesday, promised tough measures against Arabs attacking Israelis. But Mr. Rabin also said that the violence could not be stopped with-

Mr. Rabin has pledged to try to reach an agreement with Palestinians in the West Bank and Gaza on self-rule within nine months. He has also said development of the territories' economy should be there rather than commuting. The shoot-out between soldiers nd Palestinians was the third such incident in the last six weeks in which Israeli soldiers died, and was anti-Arab rioting erupted in the Tel the second in the Jenin area. Since early this year, the army down armed Palestinians. Human rights groups have accused the squads of unjustified kill-ing of a number of Palestinians, including several unarmed persons suring the security of Israelis and bystanders.

In the earlier incident in the Jenin area, a soldier was killed by an Arab collaborator after the squad, dressed as Arabs, entered the man's house at night by mis-

speeded up so Arabs could work has stepped up use of undercover squads of special units to hunt

:TK

Spying Charges, Evoking a Sinister 'Inspector Perot,' Put Texan on the Defensive

By R.W. Apple Jr.
New York Times Service

Strike

Limoge

ight Ye

Stays in space II

als, study drop of days and 21 law.

relongs to the fie

assader to lide

Cilution and inc.

अगर्व एकंट क्रांकेट

्यान्यस्य के स्टि

் பட்டுகள்

3 LG51GE ALL K(平)

harsia. The pas

ise of Unitality

ter lid moses suc esi inpe

af: 10.5 of 1500.

nes Thearms of Thursday Inc

grad i divine (

i angang

E LOVIE IT! THE

igina nomente in

धारमञ्ज्ञ सम्माकेत्। स्थानमञ्ज्ञासम्बद्धाः

WASHINGTON — Is this the needle that bursts the Perot bubble? Can the undeclared independent candidate keep his remarkable drive toward the White House on course amid a storm of charges that his agents have spied on President George Bush, members of the president's family and even his own children?

Those questions have become the talk of political Washington. Republicans and Democrats alike are chattering about "Inspector Perot" and his comempance, although they picture the Dallas billionaire-turned-populistolitician as a more sinister figure than Peter

Few politicians, here or elsewhere, believe that the damage to Mr. Perot is fatal, at least so far, but one thing is evident: For the first time, he has been forced onto the defensive. His managers had been trying to keep him under wraps to give him time to master complex issues with which he has limited familiarity, but the new round of attacks forced them, as one said, "to get him out front now, hitting back hard." Failure to do so, they were convinced, would out all the stops; appearances on early morning television, in a full-scale news conference, on "Larry King Live," the widely watched television call-in program on CNN.

NEWS ANALYSIS

He scored points in his counterattack on the NBC television program "Today," politicians said, especially by displaying a copy of a senti-mental letter from Mr. Bush thanking him for concern about the Bush family. But most of his 40 minutes of precious national airtime was spent playing defense, when what he likes to do is spray accusations at Washington insiders.

"I thought he can Bush badly with that let-have cost Mr. Perot very dearly, so they pulled ter," said John C. White, a former Democratic national chairman. "But on balance, he's hurt as much as Bush. Meanwhile, Clinton gets a chance to talk issues while they're staging a Texas shoot-out. Our guy's not exactly the darling of the voters, but if they keep at this, he may be the only one left standing, which is probably the only way that he can win this."

What the Perot forces fear is that an unflattering image of their man is taking hold - an image as "a secretive computer salesman with a penchant for skulduggery," to use the phrase of Bob Martinez, the former governor of Florida who is now Mr. Bush's point man in the camTo escape the trap, Mr. Perot is following a three-pronged strategy:

First, he is denying everything, which, as Mr. Bartels noted, offers a hostage to fortune: If he is caught lying, his image as the straight-shooting cowboy determined to drive the cheats and hars out of town will be ruined. Second, he is equating mainstream politi-cians with the news media that have been printing the charges, "putting 'em all in the same bag," as George C. Wallace used to say, and aming the mess in Washington on all of them.

Third, he has been blaming the attacks on "Republican dirty tricks," in an obvious attempt to evoke memories of the Watergate break-in, whose 20th anniversary has put it back in the news lately. Mr. Bond freely admits that Republican campaign workers have given reporters information damaging to Mr. Perot, but he denied in an interview that such conduct constituted "dirty tricks." Much will depend on whether there is more to come. Clearly, the White House takes the Texan seriously enough to mount a concerted and continuing offensive.

The atmosphere has changed. For weeks. gations about Mr. Perot's business practices and behind-the-scenes political operations were printed and broadcast daily, and no one paid attention. Now the stories are taking hold.

Clinton, Staying Out, Hopes Feud Harms Foes

BOSTON - Bill Clinton is staying out of the battle between Ross Perot and President George Bush, hoping his new economic proposal and other issues will draw favorable attention to his campaign as the Democratic convention ap-

"I think the American people can see that here are two people who really intensely dislike each other," Mr. Clinton said Thursday about Mr. Bush and Mr. Peroi. 'It's obvious that they've got an almost obsession with one another, and I'll let them play it out.'

There's a billionaire, a millionaire and me in this race, and most of the American people are more like me," the Democratic presiden-

The fight has "got to help us," said the Clinton communications director, George Stephanopoulos. "What you see is two people brawling and a third talking about is-

Mr. Clinton, the governor of Arkansas, has been running third in public opinion polls.

The Democrat visited Boston on Thursday to pick up the endorsement of Mayor Raymond Flynn, who had been cool to the candidacy but warmed up early this week after Mr. Clinton released an economic blueprint that includes major public investments in cities.

Mr. Clinton had asked manufacturers and business people to support the blueprint, including his proposals for increases in corporate taxes and cuts in executive pay.

"It is clearly time to reassess and change our policies and face reality," he told executives Wednesday at a meeting in Washington of the National Association of Manufac-

The association members, many of them Republicans and many major figures in the American business community, took Mr. Clinton's suggestions about higher taxes and lower pay in straight-faced silence. (AP, LAT, NYT)

Mr. Perot listening to a reporter's question. His advisers are having him "hit back hard."

A TV Slugfest Over 'Dirty Tricks' 'Do You Have a Shred of Proof?' Republican Asks Perot

Following are excerpts of the exange between the Republican National chairman, Rich Bond, and Ross Perot during the call-in seg-ment of CNN's "Larry King Live." They argued Wednesday over Mr. Perot's accusations that Republican

"dirty tricks" were behind negative news reports about the likely independent presidential candidate.

Mr. Bond: "You have made some very wild and unsubstantiated charges about dirty tricks by the Republican Party over the last couple of months. Now, these charges are simply untrue, they are fiction and they are fantasy and I want to ask you directly tonight . . . do you have one shred of evidence or any proof right now to back up your allegations of dirty tricks?" Mr. Perot: "Sir, I've got more than I need and at the right point in time, if you guys keep it up, I prom-

Mr. Bond: "Well . . ."

or place, but when I'm ready, I'll do it, I'll pick my time, I'll pick my place. Now, you're telling me you don't have a huge number of people going through every shred of evidence they can find about anything relating to me? You don't have anything like that? That's what you're telling the American people, Rich?"

Mr. Bond: "Oh, come on." Mr. Perot: "Do you or don't

Mr. Bond: "Mr. Perot, it's not a dirty trick to track your words and evaluate your contradictions out there, which is what you deal with every day with the American peo-

Mr. Perot: "Is it a dirty trick to distort the truth? Is it a dirty trick

Mr. Bond: "... Mr. Perot, I respect you and I liked what you said about the Constitution. But in my America, Mr. Perot, people are innocent until they're proven guilty. Now ... can you, right now, offer Mr. Perot: "This is not the time one shred of proof that the Republican Party has engaged in dirty

Mr. Perot: "I can spend until midnight, but I'm not going to do what you want done on your terms. I'll do it on my terms when I think it best serves my purposes. But I'm delighted that you're on the record now and I'm delighted that we have this transcript . . . and I think it will be fascinating over the coming months... Maybe you don't know about it ... but believe me, [the dirty tricks campaign] is alive and

Mr. Bond: "The Republican Party didn't print that story [about Mr. Perot investigating Mr. Bushl, The Washington Post printed that story. . . . We haven't broken one story, Mr. Perot."

REGALIAN

Palace Green

(Opposite Kensington Palace, London)

Apartments available from £1.1m

Contact Maria, Lady Erskine

Telephone: 44 (0) 71 938 4322. Facsimile: 44 (0) 71 938 1351

////////SOTHEBY'S//////HAMPTONS///////SAVILLS/////////

Focuses on Abuse at Top

By David Johnston

New York Times Service
WASHINGTON — In a report to Congress on Thursday, Law-rence E. Walsh, the Iran-contra prosecutor, said his inquiry sought to determine whether Reagan administration officials "at the highest level of government" had engaged in wrongdoing. Mr. Walsh left open the possibility of additional indictments tional indictments.

Coming nine days after the perjury indictment of Caspar W. Weinberger, the former defense secretary, the prosecutor's third in-term report to Congress seemed to be an effort to rebut Republican lawmakers who have criticized the length and expense of the investigation. It has cost $31.4 million and began in December 1986.

"We are attempting to determine whether officials at the highest level of government, acting individ-ually or in concert, sought to obstruct official inquiries into the Iran initiative," said Mr. Walsh.

Specifically, he said, he is trying to learn whether top Reagan offi-cials concealed documents and hed during earlier inquiries about their knowledge of secret arms shipments to Iran through Israel in late 1985. As the affair unraveled a year later, some Reagan aides feared the deliveries violated arms export control laws and and might expose the president to impeachment.

The perjury charges against Mr.
Weinberger, in which he was accused of lying to Congress about his knowledge of the shipments, stemmed from the investigation of the 1985 arms shipments, the pros-ecutor said. Although he did not rule out further indictments, Mr. Walsh said nothing about who might charged. He predicted that the inquiry would conclude by summer's end. The continuing investigation has developed new and disturbing evidence that made it necessary to re-interview many of the witnesses first questioned in 1987," the prosecutor said in the report. "This was not merely a cleanup chore - it has provided a significant shift in our understanding of which administration officials had knowledge of Iran-contra, who participated in its cover-up, and which areas required far more scrumy," he added.

Iran-Contra | Envoy's Blarney Gets Their Irish Up

By James F. Clarity New York Times Service
DUBLIN — In his first week as U.S. ambassador to Ireland, William FitzGerald, 82, a businessman and friend of President George Bush, has been hit by what one senior diplomat called "the Irish Welcome Wag-

Major newspapers have mocked Mr. FitzGerald in front-page articles because of errors he made about fundamental issues facing Ireland in

This is just a case of the Lilliputians firing their arrows at the emissary of Gulliver.'

A U.S. Embassy spokesman in Dublin

testimony during congressional hearings in Washington on his

Appearing before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on June 3, he said the Irish had already voted in a referendum to approve the European Community's treaty on union of economic, foreign and security pol-

Corrected on this point by Senator Joseph R. Biden Jr., Democrat of Delaware, who pointed out that the referendum would not be held until June 18, Mr. FitzGerald apologized and said he was thinking of projected results, not the acmal vote. The treaty was approved by 68 percent of the voters last week.

Onestioned about his views on the sectarian violence in Northern Ireland, Mr. FitzGerald said he was glad that the U.S. Congress was providing money "to encourage dialogue and cooperation between the Unionists and the Loyalists." Both terms, as nearly every leish person knows, are used to describe the same group: the province to remain part of Brit-

The Irish Times has run three articles on Mr. FitzGerald in the last week, including a front-page article Wednesday with the headline "New Ambassador is an insult; Irish-Americans

The story, written by the pa-per's Washington correspon-dent, quotes the Irish Voice newspaper in New York as saying: "By appointing such an un-suitable candidate, President George Bush has not only in-sulted Irish-Americans, but all Americans who wish to see the country done proud overseas."

The government of Prime Minister Albert Reynolds has not commented on Mr. Fitz-Gerald's gaffes, which have been reported on national television and are being discussed with some fervor on radio call-

Mr. FitzGerald, who is to present his credentials on Friday to President Mary Robinson, has also declined to comment on the criticism.

Appointments of U.S. ambassadors to Ireland have often stirred controversy. Margaret M. Heckler came to Dublin reluctantly in January 1986 after she was dislodged from her post as secretary of health and human services, a reassignment that led Irish commentators to complain that their country was viewed a booby prize.

Ultimately she won respect for her intense study of Ire-land's politics and down-toearth contacts with its people. Some Irish officials expointment of Mr. FitzGerald, but declined to comment pub-

A Western diplomat argued that because of their friendship, Mr. FitzGerald would "be able to get Bush on the phone any time he wants anything for Ireland," a level of access that a younger, career diplomat might

The spokesman for the U.S. Embassy, John Treacy, reacted scornfully to the fuss. "No blow is too low. No shot is too cheap," he said, adding. "This is just a case of the Lilliputians Protestant majority in North- firing their arrows at the emis-

Some of the things you'll need if you call home without Sprint Express.

Foreign money Foreign operators. Foreign languages. Foreign hassles. Use Sprint Express to call home, and you can forget about all of them. All you need are the access codes below to reach Sprint's English-speaking operators in the U.S. Tell the operator how you want the call billed:

to your Sprint FONCARD, to your local U.S. calling card, or collect. Enjoy your call, knowing it's costing you less than it would with AT&T or MCI. Then tear out the listing below and keep it in your pocket. That way, you won't need to make room for all of that other stuff.

Tear out and save this listing for the next time you call the U.S. (And when you get back home, call 1-800-877-1992 for additional country access numbers or a Sprint Express wallet card with the same listings.) Dial the Sprint Express Access Number of the country you're in, to reach a U.S. operator instantly.

+ Netherlands

New Zealand

~Puerto Rico

+ Norway

√Peru

Portugal

+ Japan (KDD) 001-800-777-1111 Argentina + Japan (IDC) 0066-55-877 + Singapore 0014-881-877 + El Salvador 9800-1-0284 O Korea 009-16 Spain + Belgium 078-11-0014 + Finland + Sweden + Liechtenstein 155-9777 1-800-623-0877 + France 1950087 ∨Bermuda. 800-0016 + Switzerland 0130-0013 + Malaysia + •Germany 000-8016 Brazil + Monaco 1-800-877-8000 + Guatemala

008-1877

Hong Kong 00§0317 00$800-01-877 Colombia-English 980-13-0010 + VHungary 00-801-15 980-13-0110 Indonesia Colombia-Spanish 1-800-55-2001 ireland + Costa Rica 177-102-2727 8001-0877 + Israel + Denmark + Dominican Republic 1-800-751-7877 172-1877

~Canada

SWelt for second tone. + Public phones may require coin or card. #Dedicated phones in International airports and major hotels. •Western portion only. OFrom pay phones, push red buston, wait for tone, then diel 02." VAvailable at most phones. - FÖNCARD and collect calls only. Walt for a Sprint operator (after the tone). To reach customer service from any of these countries, dial the same Country Access Number

All trademarks are property of their respective owners. © 1992 Sprint Communications Company L.P.

06§022-9119 000-999 050-12-877 05017-1-877

1-800-877-8000

155-9777 0080-14-0877 001-999-13-877 United Kingdom 0800-89-0877 + Vatican City 172-1877 Venezuela-English 800-1111-0 Venezuela-Spanish 800-1111-1

800-0877

900-99-0013

020-799-011

Not just another phone company."

WASHINGTON — It is no se-cret that I have been at odds with the Reagan and Bush administrations over their record in prevent-

I have stated publicly my dismay

over the direction taken first by President Ronald Reason and then by President George Bush in providing aid and arms to Pakistan without requiring concrete actions to stop the Pakistani bomb program, and in building up Saddam Hussein's ability to mount a nuclear and missile threat.

But an examination of the record suggests that there is more than a political or policy dimension to our

The Reagan and Bush

nonproliferation policy

bordering on lawlessness.

disagreement. I now believe that actions taken and not taken by the Reagan and Bush administrations in the area of nuclear nonproliferation amount to a pattern of willful misin-terpretation of U.S. laws.

mington and I amended the Foreign Assistance Act to require a cutoff of economic and military assistance to any country that, after 1977, imported or exported unsafeguarded nuclear enrichment or reprocessing materi-

Since then only one nation, Paki-stan, has been found by a U.S. president to be in violation of this law.

America first cut off aid to Pakistan

in September 1977, for a reprocessing-related violation. It did so again in April 1979 for a violation of the

But after the Reagan administra-tion took office in 1981, the law was changed to permit the flow of assis-tance to Pakistan during the war between the Soviet Union and the Afghan rebels. Over the next decade, aid to Pakistan amounted to more than $4 billion, including the delivery of 40 F-16 fighter planes — an excellent nuclear weapons delivery system - with no assurances that

Pakistan would end or reverse its

Indeed, the Reagan administration at one point, publicly parroting the Pakistanis' claim that their nuclear program was peaceful, pressured Congress to change the law — in effect, simply to repeal it - so that aid could be provided to Pakistan.

Congress refused, instead moving to suspend the law for a limited time while drawing a new line (no nuclear testing) that Pakistan could not cross

Pakistani program was progressing, Congress drew a tighter line, the

Pressler amendment, that required

the president to certify that Pakistan

did not possess a nuclear explosive device and that the provision of U.S.

aid would reduce significantly the

In 1985, following reports that the without suffering an aid cutoff.

nuclear weapons program.

entichment provision.

als, equipment or technology.

Some years ago, Senator Stuart Syadministrations have practiced a nuclear

ing the spread of nuclear weapons.

Bank of Taiwan

Will be a second of the second

But the same of th

変化を対するとなった

25 FT 1237 - 4 But 1

22 4 11 4

29

20 - 7 - 25

32 - A 2.25 (A.)

sa French vilas

28 () Tal Marie

G-FAILN

REGIALDE C

ENU PERVA 190 E E S ESIG BILAL SALMONELLA

SHAL SALM C. E. L. TEFFA I. S.L. E. R. D.L. RENT G.A.E.N. D. I. S.L. E. R. D.L. RENT G.A.E.N.

MENTAL SEE VEST SEE SEE SEE SEE SEE SEE

REMIETERS & SEE A LET TO THE SEE A LET TO THE SEE A LET TH

AND CONTROL OF THE CO

THE RELIEF ACCES TO A SECOND TO SECO

Solution to Puzzle of June 25

SIP R S

DECD Sees

A STATE OF THE STA

ACROSS

11:2:25

4[7-232

p:27.55

ر منظم المنظم المنظم

414 18 2 4 3 5 E

H 12 m 125 51,

cluded spare parts for F-16 aircraft. These facts alone would be enough to destroy any credibility possessed by this administration and the previous one on the issue of nuclear nonproliferation. Unfortunately, there is more (the details are beyond the scope of this article), including a fail-Court in the St. Paul, Minnesota, ure to apply the Glenn-Symington cross-burning case. amendment to Turkey despite that country's involvement in helping Pakistan acquire sensitive equipment inmate, he has been silenced and repeatedly punished for wanting to tell the world that he sold mantions have practiced a nuclear nonjuana to Dan Quayle. It is nearly four years now since cal abuse of power.

Bureau of Prisons.

chael Quinlan, ordered the press conference canceled. And at 11 that night he ordered Mr. Kimberlin confined in "the hole," a detention cell 4 feet by 6 feet (1.2 by I.8 meters). Mr. Quinlan said that he isolated reported threats. It is now acknowledged that there were no such threats. On Nov. 7, the eve of the election, Mr. Kimberlin arranged to telephor reporters. An hour before the call he was not in detention. That was after The Legal Times published an article about what had been done to him. Officials explained that he had violated telephone regulations, but later he was found innocent of that charge. A suit by Mr. Kimberlin aga in's First Amendment claim that he had been isolated and punished "because of the content of what he was proliferation policy bordering on lawlessness. They have undermined ted what had become evident: The president could not certify that the the respect of other countries for U.S. Pakistanis did not have the bomb, law and have done great damage to the nuclear nonproliferation effort. and that was tantamount to saying they had it. And nine years of U.S. assistance had helped Pakistan refor enriching uranium.

The Reagan and Bush administra-

revealed that the administration has continued to allow Pakistan to purchase munitions through commercial transactions, despite the explicit, un-ambiguous intent of Congress that

"no military equipment or technology shall be sold or transferred to Pakistan." These sales may have in-

Keep this in mind the next time omeone in the administration extols the need for military action to deal with some power-hungry dictator seeking to acquire nuclear weapons.

The Washington Post.

OPINION

concluded by 1987 that Pakistan had easily and quickly.

the ability to assemble such a device

Four years ago, reports were circulating that high-level analysts in U.S.

intelligence agencies could not support another presidential certification of aid for Pakistan. Yet in October 1989. President Bush again certified that Pakistan did not possess a nuclear explosive device and that

U.S. aid was "reducing incentives and creating disincentives" for acqui-

This disgraceful policy failure ap-peared to have ended in October 1990, when Mr. Bush finally admit-

lease funds for its nuclear weapons program and given it the means for Shockingly, testimony by Secre-tary of State James Baker this year delivering the weapons.

sition of nuclear explosives.

On Proliferation Law, a Disgraceful Failure

By John Glenn

The writer is a Democratic senator from Ohio and author of the Nuclear Nonproliferation Act, which seeks to restrict U.S. exports of plutonium, enriched uranium and enriched uranium-generating facilities.

Herald INTERNATIONAL Cribune. Published With The New York Times and The Washington Post

Russia's Army in Action

Russia's dispatch of troops into the territory of fellow members of the Commonwealth of Independent States. In Moldova (the former Soviet Moldavia), the Russian Army has come to the aid of a Russian (and Ukrainian) minority that has suffered hundreds of casualties in its attempt to wrest an independent "Trans-Dniester Republic" from the ethnic Romanian majority. In Georgia, Russian Army units have been pitted against Georgian units in a struggle by South Ossetia, which is part of Georgia, to link up with North Ossetia, part of Russia. Russian units are also being accused by Armenia of siding with Azerbaijan in the conflict raging between those two states. At this point the Commonwealth of Independent States is flailing in its fundamental mission of keeping post-Soviet ethnic tensions from turning into contests of force. These tensions are everywhere. The leaders of Russia and Ukraine, dealing directly, are struggling to head off what could be an especially ominous collision, but deep strains linger as a result of their common nuclear status, the presence of 11 million Russians on Ukrainian soil and a territorial dispute over the Crimea.

The American government, acknowledging Moscow's concern for ethnic Russians. calls for Moldova discussions aimed at implementing President Boris Yeltsin's earlier agreement" to withdraw Russian soldiers. The appeal marks recognition that the chief burden for a responsible policy falls on Russia. It is the largest ex-Soviet state, the designated heir to Soviet privileges and the inheritor of a venerable 1,000-year national tradition of its own. That 25 million Russians live dispersed outside Russia under lines why Moscow must lead in the pursuit of multiethnic coexistence.

The trick is to find useful ways to comfort kin across a border without feeding a fever of Russian empire in Moscow or reviving a fear of Russian empire in the other new states. Mikhail Gorbachev handled this challenge in a way that raised doubts about his own fairness and his relationship with the military alike. It may help now that, alarming as they are, events are driving Russia's democrats, led by Mr. Yeltsin, to take a more forward role in supporting Russians abroad. To allow right-wing nationalists to commandeer this explosive and potent issue is the formula for disaster.

- THE WASHINGTON POST.

Pragmatism in Israel

come of their most momentous vote in a edly dovish Meretz bloc, giving the peace generation. Few predicted such a decisive turn to Yitzhak Rabin's Labor Party, ending its 15 years in the wilderness. But enough Israelis voted cautiously for peace to enable him to form a government that is hostage neither to the extreme right nor to the extreme left.

This is an outcome that Americans can welcome with relief and considerable hope. For President George Bush, who has suffered harsh criticism from some American Jews, the results vindicate a long, tenacious peace initiative. The peace talks he prompted have galvanized such broad support in Israel that even Prime Minister Yitzhak Shamir held back his criticism. And now, after long pre-election paralysis, the Rabin victory offers hope to all sides. "It looks like the peace process has been rescued from the Likud's attempt at sabotaging it," Hanan Ashrawi, a leading Palestinian, said on Wednesday.

Mr. Rabin promises first priority to granting autonomy and self-rule to Palestinians. Moreover, he pledges to curb settlements in the disputed West Bank and Gaza, thus opening the way for U.S. approval of $10 billion in loan guarantees to help Israel absorb Russian immigrants. By quietly refusing to vield on this condition, Washington managed to improve Mr. Rabin's chances without giving Mr. Shamir a provocative target.

The elections spell out the result. The Likud coalition won only 32 of the Knesset's 120 seats, its worst showing since 1969. Labor's share increased from 37 seats to 45.

But this is not just a municipal matter. It also involves winning world respect for America's word. The mayor needs help from Congress and the Bush administration. They are to blame for America's abysmal failure to pay, in full and on time, the dues owed the world organization.

lor Helmut Kohl, as if he were a crafty

Rhine maiden trying to lure unwary UN workers to sleepy Bonn. When Germany's capital moves to Berlin, there will be ample space in a not unpleasant city. Mr.

Kohl is offering free rent and moving expenses to the UN Development Program, the Population Fund and the Development

Fund for Women. He has a solid advantage: Germany has paid its UN dues, and even promises to increase its added voluntary contribution. Uncle Deadbeat, by contrast, owes $555 million in general dues and $112 million for peacekeeping.

Much of the shortfall results from a

It won't do simply to snipe at Chancel-

Even Israelis seem surprised by the out- Placing third with 12 seats was the unabash-faction new leverage. Mr. Shamir's defeat owed much to mismanagement of the overtaxed, overregulated economy. Soaring unemployment led to a dramatic drop in Russian emigration; the frustrated newcomers turned strongly against Likud. This debacle was inextricably linked to the government's frantic effort to build new settlements. The blunt Mr. Rabin exploited this linkage, while reminding voters that he was also commander in the triumphant Six-Day War 25 years ago. Even fresher is his recent service as defense minister, when he confronted the Palestinian uprising with imight, power and beatings. Yet toughness is scarcely the same as inflexibility. Israelis demonstrably yearn for peace and security in a transformed Middle East. Labor and its new leader speak of national interest and security guar-antees, rather than of ideological and biblical claims to a Greater Israel.

The change to the pragmatic Rabin offers new possibilities for a land-for-peace compromise vainly sought by successive American presidents. This opportunity could evaporate, however, if Palestinians and their Arab allies once again misread the Israeli mood. Reciprocal trust can be nurtured only by matching moderation. In this. further resourceful diplomacy by Secretary of State James Baker can make a difference. It has already paid generous dividends.

follow suit, thereby deepening the United order, especially from New York's two senators and the city's 14 representatives. This is not a partisan issue. Polls show strong competitive offer to dissuade the UN Children's Fund from moving to New Rochelle. Deputy Mayor Barry Sullivan proposes a rent reduction of $28 million over 20 years if Unicef remains on U.N. Plaza.

And to underwrite future expansion, the city is prepared to issue tax-exempt bonds. But the German challenge requires more urgent attention, both in New York and in Washington. If Mr. Kohl prevails, the rest of the United Nations will soon be coaxed elsewhere, diminishing New York's standing and America's special status as

- THE NEW YORK TIMES.

City Hall has already come up with a public support for the United Nations.

More noise about this delinquency is in Nations' chronic cash shortage.

- THE NEW YORK TIMES.

T ERUSALEM - In Israel's election campaigning, none of the parties made an issue, even a small issue, of the main threat to the country: the nonconventional, and particularly the nuclear, weapons development programs of Israel's risk of its getting one. The Pressler

amendment also stated that such a cutoff would mean "no military equipment or technology shall be sold or transferred to Pakistan."

the Bush and Reagan commitment to flow, Pakistan had not produced bomb-grade nuclear material, nor had it manufactured bomb compo-nents or repeatedly violated U.S. nu-clear export control laws and those of U.S. allies. All these provocations occurred at the time of maximum U.S.

assistance and continued after enact-

Did Pakistan suffer an aid cutoff as required by the amendment? No. The deliveries of F-16s and other equipment continued. President Reagan

continued to certify annually that Pakistan did not "possess" a nuclear de-vice and (despite all the evidence to the contrary) that continued U.S. as-sistance would reduce the risk of such possession — this although India had ment of the Pressler amendment.

nonproliferation in this case?

What does the record show about

In 1981, when U.S. aid began to enemies and potential enemies. Some in the Israeli military have warned of the danger posed by the nuclear programs of Iran, Iraq and Algeria. While the Gulf War has temporarily curbed Iraq's nuclear program, Iran is said to be less than a decade away from the bomb. It reportedly is hiring former Soviet nuclear weapons scientists.

Algeria, whose government is under threat from a powerful Muslim fundamentalist movement, is said to be closest among the Muslim states (apart from Pakistan) to achieving nuclear capability. Israel's political leaders have failed publicly to address the problem. There was logic to this silence. Sounding the knell of nuclear disaster was unlikely to win votes. And neither major party has a solution. Iran, Iraq, Libya and the fundamentalists in Algeria make no bones about regarding Israel as Sa-tan incarnate. Nor do they hide their desire to see Israel destroyed. The Islamic extremists of Iran and Algeria and the megalomaniacs of Iraq and Libya will seek Israel's destruction whether or not Israel annexes the West Bank and the Gaza Strip or rules and oppresses 1.7 million Palestinians. For the question of the state's size or policies: It is a question of its very presence in the Arab heartland. Few Israelis believe Arab and Muslim claims that their nuclear programs are peace-oriented. Every Israeli (and Arab) knows that if and when these countries obtain nuclear weapons, Israel will be in mortal danger. Israel is too small and its population too concentrated to survive a muclear strike.

Muslim haters of Israel it is not a

By Benny Morris

Israel Didn't Face the Biggest Issue

Syria's stated policy of attaining "strategic parity" with Israel — which is reported to have dozens of atomic bombs — must lead to achieving a credible nuclear option.

Iran's nuclear ambitions may largely have been triggered by the Iraqi threat, but once Iran has nuclear weapons there is every reason to believe that they will be directed against the Zionist "Satan." Even without war. Israel would be imperiled by Muslim nuclear weapons. Nuclear weapons in onemy hands would undermine Israeli life and morale: Jews would stop emigrating to Israel, Israelis would emigrate, and investors and loan guarantors would be deterred. The threat of Arab nuclear powers could intimidate the international community into ostracizing Israel.

Major General Herzl Budinger commander of the Israeli Air Force, has said that Israel must take political and military measures to prevent its enemies from attaining a nuclear Israel can militarily frustrate the Muslim march toward the Bomb. The destruction of nuclear reaccanability. But it is doubtful whether tors and weapons plants - in actions such as the raid by the Israeli Air Force in Iraq in 1981 — is probably no longer feasible. There are problems of distance and plant dispersal, not to mention the immense political and military hazards of such operations.

The solution to the problem lies, if it lies anywhere, in Washington, Bonn, London, Paris, Tokyo and perhaps Moscow. Only the West's deployment of economic, political and maybe even military threats and sanctions can block the Arab drive for nuclear weapons. The avoidance of a nuclear war in the Middle East should be a major Western interest, irrespective of Israel. But the West's vigor and enthusiasm in pursuing this goal, in some degree, will be influenced by the type of government it has to deal with in Jerusalem. A Labor-led coalition, conciliatory on the Palestinian issue and perhaps the Golan Heights, may well reduce the neighboring Arabs' motivation to go to war and to provide the trigger for a nuclear confrontation between Israel and the fundamentalist Muslims of the periphery.

The writer is author of "The Birth of the Palestinian Refugee Problem. 1947-1949" and "The Roots of Appeasement." He contributed this comment to The New York Times.

For Hong Kong's Sake, Keep the Pressure on China By Clare Hollingworth

HONG KONG — The first and most important task that Chris Patten, governor-designate of Hong Kong, will face when he takes up his post on July 10 will be to persuade the Beijing government that the British do not intend to leave a penniless city on what once was described as

'a barren rock." China's representatives in the British territory fear that in 1997 they will take over nearly 6 million people "without funds or fittings." Beijing remains unconvinced by the repeated assurances of the outgoing British government that it will leave financial reserves sufficient to pay the pensions of former members of the administration and to cover the costs of the controversial new airport.

But if the new governor, a personal friend of Prime Minister John Major of Britain, can persuade Beijing's local representatives that the cash will his counterparts. There are more than be in their hands July 1, 1997, he will have built sufficient confidence to tackle the complicated negotiations over the new airport - the catalyst for a variety of other political issues ahead of the handover.

American businessmen and bankers, along with some of their European and Asian colleagues, fear that whether the future of democracy or of the British military headquarters is at stake, a prolonged crisis of public confidence could cause a stock market crash. And a plunge in market values would cause property values to drop dramatically.

Many Hong Kong businessmen stress the vital importance of future consultations between the governor and the American consul general and

Madame Governor, a Turkish Success

16,000 U.S. citizens in the colony, compared to only 12,000 British subjects. More than 900 American companies are based in Hong Kong, and U.S. investments there total $8 billion, a sum recently eclipsed by Japan.

The American Chamber of Commerce here remains the largest outside the United States and has enormous influence in the region.

American and Japanese diplomats claim they never interfere with the British, though views surely are ex-changed behind the scenes. It is indeed important that the diplomatic/consular corps is consulted on the many difficult issues facing the governor.

Beijing is expected to raise the status of its representative, Zhou Nan, director of the local branch of Xinwith Chris Patten on equal terms. China, too, has billions invested in Hong Kong. The most difficult issue now concerns the problem created by Whitehall's promise to talk with the Chinese authorities about making faster progress toward democracy. China bitterly opposes the idea.

The stock of the outgoing governor, Lord Wilson, has risen in recent weeks. But the "sandwich class" of hard-pressed middle-income residents was disturbed by his statement that only the governor, supported by the British foreign secretary, could ap-point unelected members to the governing Executive Council. In the long run, the most decisive issue will be China's gradual military takeover from the British. The Chinese want to come early and take control of all property used by the British defense services. Fortunately, the British commander. Major General John Foley, is a diplomat as well as a good soldier. Rightly or not, the sandwich class is deeply concerned that Beijing — where aging hard-liners are still fighting a strong reargnard action — could kill the goose that lays the golden eggs. This is most unlikely so long as the largest container port in the world is in Hong Kong, serving Guangdong the prosperous Chinese province to the north, which in turn supplies Beijing with urgently needed foreign currency.

It is extremely important that diplomats from North America, Japan, Australia and Europe remind Beijing frequently of the global commercial importance of Home Keng importance of Hong Kong.

International Herold Tribune

hua (the New China News Agency), to ambassador, so that he might deal blanket denials to be credible.

many supposed coincidences for the One more supposed coincidence is that the Federal Parole Commission has treated Mr. Kimberlin with singular harshness. He was convicted of scheduled it for February 1994. general in the Nixon administration, petitioned the Supreme Court unsuccessfully on Mr. Kimberlin's behalf to review the bombing conviction because prosecution witnesses had been hypnotized before their testimony. Dean Griswold says he has found Brett Kimberlin "able and reliable." Dean Griswold has been wonderful to me," Mr. Kimberlin said when I spoke to him on the telephone. "He writes to me. He never for saying what I knew."

Yes, whether Vice President-to-be Dan Quayle bought marijuana in the 70s is a question of no importance. But it matters a lot if officials manipulated the federal prison system at the behest of a political campaign. That question should be explored in the way best designed to get the facts promptly: a congressional hearing.

IN OUR PAGES: 100, 75 AND 50 YEARS AGO

The New York Times.

1892: Humbert's Visit BERLIN - If speeches, kisses, fètes

and demonstrations were the chief factors in politics, the world would have been changed a good deal dur-ing the past fortnight or three weeks. But the events we have seen during King Humbert's visit to Berlin have not had the great results that some expected. The world stands very nearly where it did a month ago: Italy is no ncher; Germany is no surer; France is not much stronger; Russia is still famished. From conversations with more than one high personage, I learn that, during his stay here, King Humbert privately expressed his conviction that, although a European conflict need not be expected for the present, it could not be averted very long.

1917: Anthem Is Banned NEW YORK - General Leonard

Wood, Military Governor of New York, has forbidden "The Star-Spangled Banner" to be played in theatres order is probably due to a fear that constant repetition may rob the national anthem of its significance. 1942: A New Pershing and other places of amusement. The

WASHINGTON — [From our New York edition:] One of the last formalities necessary before actual American participation in combat in Europe was completed today [June 25], when the War Department officially established a European theater of operations for the United States forces now in England and Northern Iro-land and designated Major General Dwight D. Eisenhower as the "second-front general" who will be the John J. Pershing for this war. The appointment of the fifty-one-year-old Texas-born tank expert as the man in charge of deciding when and where American troops will invade Axis-held soil coincided with other developments in the struggle of the United Nations to offset the head start gained by the Axis Powers.

Other Comment

Keep the United Nations

Mayor David Dinkins has mounted a fiscal gimmick. Although dues are payable catch-up campaign to keep four United on Jan. 1, the check does not go into the Nations agencies from leaving New York mail until October, when the United

City for cheaper pastures in Germany or States begins a new fiscal year. American suburban New Rochelle. That is a start. procrastination invites other members to

Financing a New Russia

The good Boris Yeltsin and the nasty troublemakers in Russia - one should get away from this oversimplification. It is as misleading as the glorification of Mikhail Gorbachev was. This hero can ignored interests that the Russian president must represent. What is happening in Moldova, of the Community not to recognize Macrepresent. What is happening in Moldova, edonia. It can only be hoped that the sumcow has to do with social and ethnic forces. mit participants will base their decision on

Mr. Yeltsin does not want to get rid of sons but on financial grounds. Economic reconstruction and armament cannot be financed at the same time.

Frankfurter Rundschau (Frankfurt).

Wrangling Over a Name

It was exactly a year ago that the Europe-The EC was, of course, never prepared to power, must display the same courage now. intervene militarily, but even nonmilitary — Business Times (Singmore).

intervention can sometimes have an effect a case in point being the present dispute ability to disrupt other EC affairs. - Neue Zürcher Zeitung (Zurich).

The Challenge in Manila

What Filipinos and foreign investors need to fixing his country's economy, no easy task.

INTERNATIONAL HERALD TRIBUNE

JOHN VINOCUR, Executive Editor • WALTER WELLS, News Editor • SAMUEL ABT, KATHERINE KNORR and CHARLES MITCHELMORE, Deputy Editors • CARL GEWIRTZ, Associate Editor ROBERT J. DONAHUE, Editor of the Editorial Pages • REGINALD DALE, Economic and Financial Editor

International Herald Tribune, 181 Avenue Charles-de-Gaulle, 92521 Neuilly-sur-Seine, France Tel., (1) 46,37,93,00. Telex: Advertising, 613595; Circulation, 612832; Editorial, 612718; Production, 630698

Chairman from 1958 to 1982: John Hay Whitney

Directeur de la Publication : Richard D. Summons

with Greece over the recognition of Mac-edonia, where the Athens government has insisted that recognition be made conditional on Macedonia's changing its name. At the EC summit meeting in Lisbon, the the merits of the case, and not on Athens's most is a decisive, results-oriented president. [President-elect Fidel] Ramos must get down an Community confidently began its attempts to mediate in the Yugoslav conflict. Mr. Ramos, who displayed great bravery in the revolt that drove Ferdinand Marcos from - Business Times (Singapore).

KATHARINE GRAHAM, ARTHUR OCHS SULZBERGER

LEE W. HUEBNER, Publisher

RENÉ BONDY, Depus, Publisher • RICHARD H. MORGAN, Associate Publisher
JUANITA I. CASPARI, Advertising Sales Director • ROBERT FARRÉ, Circulation Director, Europe

Chairman from 1938 to 1982: John Hay Whitney
Editor for Axia: Michael Richardson & Camerbury Rd, Singapore Rd 472-7768. Tix RS56928
Mrs., Dir. Axia: Michael Richardson & Camerbury Rd, Singapore Rd, Hong Kong, Tel. 860460. Telex: 61170
Mrs., Dir. U.K. Garry Thome. 63 Long Acre, London W.C. Tel. 886-4802. Telex: 262009
Gen. Mgr. Germany: W. Lauerbach, Friedrichson. 15, 6000 Frankfunt M. Tel. (069) 726755. Tix 416721
Pres. U.S. Michael Conroy, 850 Third Ave., New York, N.Y. 10022. Tel. (212) 752-3890. Telex 427175
S.A. an cupital de 1,2011000 F. RCS Nanterre B 732021126. Commission Pantaire No. 61337
1092. International Herald Tribune. All rights reserved. ISSN: 0294-8052.

By Flora Lewis

MUGLA, Turkey — In the towns and villages she visits. people show respect and deference. But sometimes they have trouble getting her title right. Out of habit and sheer strangeness of the new idea. Lale Aytaman is often called Voli Ber (Si Grannes) in readed Vali Bey (Sir Governor) instead of Vali Hanim (Madame Governor).

She laughs. It is the least of her problems as the first female gover-nor of a Turkish province. Mugla was considered one of the most conservative, but it is visibly beginning to prosper, with sturdy houses sprouting through the countryside and an impressive power grid.

Mrs. Aylaman, 48, is a vastly energetic professor who never imagined that she would run anything, let alone a province, but finds she is loving it and having no trouble with prejudice in this Muslim country. Legally secular since the Ataturk revolution, Turkey nonetheless has a growing fundamentalist move-ment. And there is a palpable nostalgia of pride and sentiment for the great days of the Ottoman Empire, which is not so different from memories of past glory that stir funda-mentalists in Arab lands. But Mrs. Aytaman's position and success are a sign of the times. Other women are emerging to run things in business, academia, public life. Women's rights were established in the constitution in 1923, "but with custom, politics and so on, it wasn't until now that they are getting real," she said.

She finds she can get things done.

She exulted last week when she persuaded the legislature to approve a new university for her city, Mugla, capital of Mugla Province. In the lovely coastal resort town of Mar-

maris, after dinner on the waterfront with friends, she made a point of inspecting the local police sta-tion. She was saluted smartly and shown the clean, well-appointed rooms, though not the booking desk and the small cell next to it holding three men.

The policemen seemed pleased to see her. "They like me," she said. "I told them not to fix any more tickets or make exceptions for big shots, and if anyone complains, say 'gover-nor's order.' People shouldn't be afraid of the police, they should have confidence in fairness.

Local bureaucrats in the ancient town of Milas, where she was not present, said they found it good to put it: "Women care more about looking after things. They aren't greedy and ambitious for power."

are appointed, usually on a partisan basis. Thus, when the prime minister who named Mrs. Aytaman fell last winter, more than 50 of them were replaced, and she was expected to go, too. But there was a big campaign in the province, with meetings and petitions to keep her.

another will get the chance?"

It did not hurt that the politicians

ened: "It isn't up to the man to be proud, that's for the woman." Clear-

have a female boss because, as one Turkey's 74 provincial governors

"I told them don't do it for me, it makes no difference. I can always go back to the university. But do it for Turkish women. Who knows when in Ankara saw that she had been scrupulously fair and nonpartisan in running elections in her province. Prime Minister Suleyman Demirel shows her off to visitors; he cited her with pride when he addressed a congress on educating women.

"I am not a feminist," she said. "If a woman is capable, I'll help, but I feel responsible for all."

Her husband, Reha, a career diplomat at the Foreign Ministry, is her most enthusiatic booster and looks after their 14-year-old son, Osman. when she is rushing to meetings with security officials or making sure that new tractors and garbage trucks are delivered to rural areas. Osman is not so keen. Asked if he was proud of his mother, he stiff-he misses her, but he will be part of the new, accepting generation.

Turkey has an in-between place. It looks westward, eager for full in-volvement in the modern world, although coming reluctantly to ac-knowledge that its ambition to join the European Community will not soon be fulfilled; and it looks east-ward, particularly to the Turkic-speaking republics of Central Asia eking their way after communism.

It is coming to see that the equality of women and use of their talents and capacities is an essential element in political as well as economic development. The education of women has already been demonstrated as the key to muffling the population explosion, which guarantees that so many poor countries stay poor.

It hopes to be a model for them.

Lale Aytaman is a first in her position, but she is determined not to be an exception. The way she goes about it makes it likely that others will soon be able to follow. She admits she was awed and scared when she was first appointed. "I didn't know anything about administra-tion, but I didn't know how strong I was." She laughs again. There is good news, too, in the world.

المكنانمانده

A Citizen

Gagged by
The State

By Anthony Lewis
OSTON — In the United States, government officials cannot stop me from speaking, or remark to the contract of the contra $B_{\rm government}^{\rm OSTON-In} \ {\rm the} \ {\rm United} \ {\rm States},$ anyone from speaking, or punish him afterward, because they distike his political message. That basic understanding of the First Amendment has just been reaffirmed by the Supreme

But the principle has not helped Brett Kimberlin. A federal prison The state of the s

Mr. Kimberlin first tried to talk to the press about his charge. What was done to silence him has been reported from time to time. But by delay and obfuscation, the Bush administration has managed so far to avoid real public focus on what by all signs was an outrageous, polit-Mr. Kimberlin was scheduled to talk to the press on Nov. 4, 1988, four days before the election, at a conference arranged by authorities at the federal prison in Oklahoma where he was then held. Regulations permitted such meetings with the press. A top aide in the Bush-Quayle campaign, Mark Goodin, heard about the scheduled conference. He telephoned the Justice Department's director of public affairs, Loye Miller, to complain. Mr. Miller told higher Justice officials and the The director of the bureau, J. Mi-

Mr. Kimberlin to protect him from

was returned to "the hole."
On Dec. 22, 1988, Mr. Kimberlin

Mr. Quinlan and others could bring out the facts. Federal Judge Harold Greene of Washington ruled on Aug. 6, 1991, that there was afficient evi-dence to justify a trial of Mr. Kimber-

But Mr. Quinlan and the others appealed, and the Court of Appeals will not hear argument of the case until Oct. 16. Meanwhile, Mr. Kimberlin's lawyers are barred from ones-tioning officials about their actions.

Officials have denied any political motive in what they did to Mr. Kimswer questions, and there are too marijuana amuggling, which he admits, and of bombings, which he denies. He was eligible for release in 1989, but the commission has now Erwin Griswold, the former dean of the Harvard Law School and solicitor forgets my birthday. He's been like a grandfather." On his case Mr. Kimberlin said: The marijuana smoking is really a peccadillo. I just thought it was worth people knowing. But what's been done to me since then is an injustice and an outrage. I've been punished and harassed and threatened simply

OECD Sees More Growth for 'Dragons'

PARIS — Sluggish growth in the world's leading economies has not held back Asia's as major growth in its half-yearly outlook the But this performance was a major growth area," held back Asia's so-called Little Dragons, which will record average growth rates of 7 percent in both 1992 and 1993, according to an OECD report released Thursday.

The dragons - or the dynamic Asian economies, as they are known by the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development - are South Korea, Taipony Lewis

In the United &

aking of paid
use they order use the

ciple has not been side of the ciple has not been side of the ciple of our years are as first med to at cour his charge as a length of the course as a length of the course and the course are a length of the course and the course are a length of the course and the course are a length of the course are a length of the course and the course are a length of the co

has managed at an outrageous K Jø €Ľ

ciccum alim

ark Goodin in duled conjects in of public for complain in the complaint i suce officials soil;

of the pursual fit

ordered the prote

ed. And at 11 h

-- by 1.5 metal

Said that he me

no bioled par

s. It is now attack

en ere co sud de

he eve of the dec

नाः अव्यक्ति । विश्व

in in principal

1985. Mr. Kashi

escor The 186

e-publications

अन्य एस अल्ल

22.02002 回世 ALC: CORE 1 Carr 2016

Forest Line andre andre s in Company AUTHOR TOPS

rine with ed and medic enter a di re

the Continue 12002.20

er enn aut pied ng estimat. ದು ಜಾತಕ

್ಷ ಎಂದುರವಕ್ಕ وناهي جي ا 1 Part (1992 Karen rein

1 . 1 . TEE

Ferrier : 12 in Size with V1- 1-20

فقاتكا وسيسدي المنطا وتنسيست The Marie

打扮 沙芹 进程 والمعادة المناس

W Market 1

N. W. L. Carrier

In its half-yearly outlook, the Paris-based OECD said growth averaged 7.5 percent in these countries for the third successive year in 1991, powered by buoyant domestic demand and soaring exports.

"Growth in the dynamic Asian of the OECD area. The China- 1991, of $8.8 billion. Hong Kong-Taiwan triangle is

But this performance was not without problems in some of the six countries. South Korean consumer prices rose 9.7 percent in 1991, after 8.6 percent inflation in 1990. and inflation of 9 percent is likely this year. Heavy imports of investeconomies continues largely unaf-ment goods led to a record currentfected by the sluggish performance account deficit in dollar terms in

Monetary policy was tightened

as a result, and 1992 budget plans aimed to hold spending increases to 6 percent.

Malaysia posted a trade deficit in 1991 for the first time since 1982, and the current-account shortfall reached $4.4 billion. Inward investment fell sharply. "An expansionary fiscal policy aimed at ensuring the achievement of the 8.7 percent growth target in 1992 is likely to increase inflationary pressures and the current-account deficit," the OECD warned.

In Hong Kong, inflation touched 14 percent at one point in 1991, before slipping back to 10 percent at the end of the year. The OECD is forecasting average 1992 inflation of 10.5 percent.

It said exports grew almost 17 percent in volume terms in 1991. Most of the export growth was due to re-exports, reflecting the continuing shift of Hong Kong's manufacturing base to southern China," it said,

A major increase in trade with China helped boost Taiwan's exports by 13 percent in value terms in 1991.

For investment information, read

every Saturday in the IHT.

Bank of Taiwan to Set Up in Hong Kong

42 Zing

54 Yawp

45 Dog of primers

52 Item for Bohr

59 Tchrs.' org.

60 Gland: Comb.

61 Whiz's partner

62 Maxim's has

63 Code word

two

55 Phrase: Part III

46 Dry white wines

TAIPEI — Bank of Taiwan, the island's largest commercial bank and issuer of local currency, announced Thursday that it had received permission from the Hong Kong government to open a representative office in the British colony. Bank officials said the bank, owned by the provincial government, planned to convert the office into a branch early next year.

ACROSS

1 Duchess of patron

*Tire jobs

14 Drudge

17 Start of a form

15 Vigor

11 Ararat vessel

16 Writer Anais

19 Bird: Comb.

phrase about 39 Across

----, Goya

Taiwan commercial banks are interested in doing business in Hong Kong in order to handle the growing indirect trade between Taiwan and China, which passes through the territory.

20 Fleur-de-

22 Author of

29 Aces

31 Ind. city

32 Aweather's opposite

33 Promenade

36 Million chaser

38 Football stats

June 26, 1892

39 Writer born

"Them"

24 Book ending

25 Phrase: Part II

21 Mai de ----

Hong Kong reached a record $5.79 billion last year. A Taiwan publication, the Economic Daily News, reported that Hong Kong's Banking Commission had not approved applications by three other Taiwan banks to upgrade their representative offices in the colony to branches.

In a dispatch from Hong Kong, the report said the three — Hua Nan Commercial Bank, First Commercial Bank of Taiwan and Chang Hwa Commercial Bank — had not yet met the risk-based capital ratio of 8 percent laid down by international banking guidelines.

35 Bolivian city 37 Writer Umberto 40 Routine

Misèrables'

Surround

7 Bus. V.I.P.

9 Tway's org.

11 Chess champ

Karpov

12 Held firmly

noshing

Thurman

23 Arab garment

28 East wind, to 18 Actress

a sort

27 Bit

30 Payoff

8 Estuary

10 Council

41 "Oh, ----!": Gershwin musical 42 Heiti's Duv 43 Lettered 44 Article for Arp 47 City in Italia

48 iron or tin, e.g. 49 Chess champ 31 Writer Yutang $3 Sai (The

© New York Times, edited by Eugene Maleska.

65 German granny (moderated) 66 "ich --57 Katmandu is its 67 Ransom capital

64 End of phrase 69 Mei of baseball Solution to Puzzle of June 25 70 lago's wife 71 Glaciarium PERCHERONS ARUT
EEL SPRIG PRE
HONES CEES 72 Bee chaser 73 Doctorow's "The Book of OPS POT STILT PROVIDE TUNABLE
TALON GRAIN 74 "K-K-K-DOWN 1 Handsome young men 2 induigent 3 Support 4 Even one 5 Stitch anew 14154

For information on how to list your fund, fax Simon OSBORN on (33-1) 46 37 21 33.

INTERNATIONAL HERALD TRIBUNE

SPORTS EURO

marry him!"

without too much difficulty.

Stadium on Friday night.

bruise in this event.

ays of Laudrup.

to match any opponent bruise for

I do not suggest that is the first

Danish intention. Far from it. Denmark deservedly upset the French and Dutch by raiding swiftly down

the flanks, by using the speed and appetite of Povisen's front running and the quick, darting, clusive for-letic and consistent force down the left wing, Henrik Andersen, is out of the final. He would have missed

it anyway, being the only man from either side to collect two yellow cards, but the knee injury for which he was flown by helicopter to Co-doubted weakness on a team ex-

back, Lars Olsen and Kent Nielsen

and Torben Piechnik; Kim Chris-

tofte, John Jensen, Henrik Larsen

His absence will create an un-

Peter Schmeichel; John Sive-penhagen threatens his career.

pected to line up like this:

and Flemming Povisen.

Sadly for Denmark, its most ath-

Danes Seek Another Surprise In Showdown With Germany

International Herald Tribune

GOTHENBURG, Sweden We are at last into the morning of the final game. Either Germany will continue its addiction to collecting major soccer trophies or Denmark will surprise everyone for the second time this week by winning the European championship, for its first major honor.

Given the style with which the Danes out-willed the Netherlands on Monday night, we must hesitate before using the term underdog, match in Cologne between an all-Yet, the Danes positively encourage the description, hoping the comparative lack of pressure entitles them to take the first bite of a Danes and Germans, in fact, have favored opponent.

Germany's camp, as reported Thursday, has perverse ways of whipping up the mean nature that striker, will try to outwit his Dort-sometimes seems inbred in its tri-mund club colleague, the German

If the opponent won't indulge in verbal warfare, the Germans practice on themselves. Thursday, the Their telephone conversations were reported here Thursday.

Another fly on the wall, this time team manager, Berti Vogts, con-stantly scorned by Der Spiegel as a against the has-beens sniping at banter.

be taken too seriously by my my proposal that Denmark would team," snarled Berti the Terrier, adding that the former players turned critics, Harald Schumacher, Hans-Peter Briegel and Paul the track together." Breimer, had in 1982 given "German football a very bad image."
He added that Schumacher's acmidfield will be needed to subdue cusation of the modern Germany the quicksilver creative play of producing a team of no personality Landrup, told the press from his insulted my team."

"Coming from Schumacher it is unnacceptable," he said. "He should not forget that this team in April gave their free time to help im gain one million marks." That was the profit banked by Schumacher from a testimonial star team and the national squad. With friendly in-house dogs like these, who needs enemies? The two sets of pals in situations where they will mark each other Friday.

ROB HUGHES

Flemming Povisen, the Danish national sweeper Thomas Helmer.

watching Bayern Munich teammates Brian Landrup and Stefan terrier who is not a kaiser, tena- Effenberg, would hear, according ciously defended his players to their account, the most affable

"These kind of people should not said Laudrup. "He disagreed with win the final, but we agreed, Effenberg and I, to change shirts after the match and to walk one lap of

Effenberg, whose gangling but

Baltic States Get UEFA Membership

Compiled by Our Staff From Dispatches GOTHENBURG, Sweden - The Baltic states of Lithuania, Latvia

and Estonia received full membership Wednesday in UEFA on condition that FIFA, soccer's world governing body, ratify these associations later this year. FIFA is expected to grant them full membership at its congress

The executive committee of UEFA, Europe's governing soccer body, also granted provisional membership to the soccer associations of Russia, Ukraine, Georgia, Croatia and Slovenia.

UEFA decided last month to invite the three Baltic states and Croatia, Georgia, Slovenia and Ukraine to enter teams in next season's Champions' Cup, Cup Winners' Cup and UEFA Cup competitions. But FIFA must first grant them full membership.

• The Netherlands gained some scant consolation for its semifinal defeat by winning the tournament's fair play award Thursday. UEFA gave the Scottish Football Association a special award for the and Kim Villort; Brian Laudrup behaviour of its boisterous but peaceful fans.

Germany

Denmark

Germany, with no more injury losses after the first- and secondchoice captains, Lothar Matthaus and Rudi Völler, dropped out, have neither the traumas nor the inspiration that these marauding Danes draw from adversity.

No German, for example, has had to leave camp to sign papers for a child to receive a bone marrow transplant, as Wilfort did a Riedle. week ago for his 7-year-old daughter, Line, a leukemia victim.

The expectation that is Germany's own burden is heavily built on the diminutive, effervescent Thomas Hässler, who has flourished now that he no longer feels like the errand boy for Matthaus. Similarly, Karl-Heinz Riedle has led the attacks with brio and enlarged confidence, using Jürgen game, Klinsmann as his bold foil the way the gle Hässler prompts the former GDR mark.

schemer, Matthias Sammer, into a creative double act. Germany's unchanged line-up

Bodo Illgner, Jürgen Kohler, Thomas Helmer and Guido Buchwald; Stefan Reuter, Thomas Hässler, Stefan Effenberg, Matthias Sammer and Andreas Brehme; Jürgen Klinsmann and Karl-Heinz

The referee will be Bruno Galler of Switzerland.
The winner? Of course, I think

Germany. And I hope this night in Gothenburg proves me just as wrong as I, in common with Pelė and every other pundit, were in giving Denmark no chance against the Dutch:

Surprise is the essence of the game, and few teams ever earned the glory more daringly than Den-

PEANUTS

BEETLE BAILEY

CALVIN AND HOBBES

THAT'S NO GOOD! NUIO'S GOING TO BUY SOMETHING LIKE THAT?

I KNOW

YOUR TYPE!

NO, I WON'T

GO OUT

WITH YOU!

Pelé: Midas and the Monster

Soccer's Greatest Star Also Made Money Paramount

By Ian Thomsen International Herald Tribiate

GOTHENBURG. Sweden Pele's son is a goalkeeper. He is the brought him to Santos from Bauru, No. 2 goalkeeper for the famous club where Pelé used to play, Santos of Brazil. It is the wonderful irony afforded by sports, that a son should seek to prevent the same goals sought by his father.

"My son is upset because he doesn't play," Pele said Thursday. "I said to him, This is normal. You're 21. You will develop." Do you know why he complained? Because he didn't play, he didn't get a bonus. It is about money. You see his mentality. Then I must argue

He told his son that he should not be concerned about the money. His concern should be to develop into a great goalkeeper. He should seek to play for the Brazilian na-tional team. What does the money mean? Isn't this the lesson of his father's career?

"When I played, I had offers from Italy, Spain, Mexico," Pelé said. "I said, O.K., I make nice money playing for Santos, I make nice money playing for Brazil. I'm not going to transfer to some other place for a little bit more money. It is a different mentality today.

He was sitting on a peach and vanilla couch in the suite of an expensive hotel. A MasterCard banner hung from the wall behind him. He wore a blue blazer bearing. a MasterCard patch. One of the dozen reporters seated around asked whether his son ever retorted that his own father should understand, having attached himself to something as lucrative as Master-Card

"No, we don't talk about that," Pelé said. "Of course, as players, we have a short life. Players have 15 years to make their life. But I think you should have the same base. You can't always be commercial. You can't always think about the money. You need to have the bal-

He was seated now in the country where fame located him. Brazil was contesting the World Cup in Sweden, and the wandering spot-light caught one glance of Pelé and never blinked again. That was 34 years ago. He scored five goals in the final two games of Brazil's world championship. He had al- freshest in the memory.

ready been a professional for two years. He was 17 years old.

"He was 14 when his father which by bus at that time was eight hours from Santos," said Dr. Julio Mazzei, who has coached and advised Pelé for 32 years. "That was shoes. His mother said, My son is going to the big city. I won't have him dressed like this. His mother made for him two shirts and a pair of long trousers. When he came to Santos, he could not walk. When you don't wear shoes, your feet spread out. In the shoes he looked funny walking."

He lived in the players' boarding house in Santos. He was paid $5 a month. He sent his mother $3 every month. At 16 he earned a place on the national team. During a warmup game in Brazil, he injured a knee and did not return until the third match of the 1958 World Cup

"For our luck, he was injured nobody could spot him," Mazzei said. "Until the semifinal game of the World Cup, no team had scored the first goal against us. Then, 15 minutes into the semifinal, France scored the first goal. Who grabbed the ball out of the net, plucked it under his arm, carried it to the center and started things going but this 17-year-old boy. He was telling the other players, how can we let this happen to us? He was the leader. Seventeen years old."

He is 51 now, and it is a cliche to say of such men that they still appear young enough to play, but in Pele's case it is true. There are players in the game today who look older than him. Only around the eyes has his youth been betrayed. He carries himself free of strain. In 23 years he never suffered a major

The game has suffered to replace him. If the question is about great modern players, he struggles to name any. He likes the high consis-tent level of Frank Rijkaard's midfield play for the Netherlands. He enjoyed Lothar Matthans, before a knee injury felled the German, and he mentioned Danish midfielder Brian Laudrup, perhaps because his performance in the semifinal upset of the Netherlands in the European Championship here is

"I think sometimes we look to replace one player with another," Pele said "But we have only one Beethoven. You can't replace Beethoven. There are a lot of musicians, but Beethoven's Beethoven, There is one Michelangelo. Then, I used to say, there is one Pele. You the first time he had ever seen can't change that. I used to say that," my father and mother closed the machine. You can make no more Pelés."

Idvance i

THE RESERVE

FR OR EN

British Marine M

Francisco de la companya del companya de la companya del companya de la companya

Media pui

Manager and the second

THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF THE PARTY.

LESS TRANS

Marie the server were

Marie and the marie and the second

Marie Walls the Committee of the Committ

September 1

The second secon

Com Er C Dan Francisco

end the control of th

agrantic

the finger of the

Benedical - Trace of the A establishment of the second state for states or 4 page.

M He man - - -

FRANCE ive :______

million and the second SEE TAIL - TO THE PROPERTY OF THE PERSON OF

IN SEC. 1977

ERECTOR OF A maniferance of the contract of

SELINES

Suspension of Howe

Made Permanent

passed in content and

MA INSTERNATIONS

NEW YORK (NYT) - F sizes

pm Seas House

le picher y medicale - 100 - 100

in the a course of the course

Suspended a Total mendadi mana

an bem suspended any time

Toute has entered

The Houston Rockers - Series

A Superiorus will care the

in 7 and 8. marks - s the same

the in three years the leading regular season.

Salvatare (Total Schillage 200

and Cup bero at hor with forenties, signed a time-BY 270 million Company to the second

Standard Harden

manual possession

for the Record

Monday's comment of the والمتناطقة والمتناج Barrier 19 19 國家共產黨

But he is wary, too, that the mod-, em system - a system of his creation, in fact — does not allow space for great players. Perhaps the game can expect no more Peles, butwhat happened to the Johan Cryuffs, the Michel Platinis? The attacking, creative game of Pele'sera appealed to the corporations. which paid great sums to attach their products to the game. Pressured by money, coaches are now, fearful of goals that will cost themtheir jobs. Players move from team to team, chasing higher salaries more fiercely than a loose ball.

Last year. Pelé suggested several. rules changes to FIFA, to spring the game from its defensive maiaise. He would do away with defensive walls, pointing out that it is the attacker who is penalized by them. -fouled on the edge of the penalty box, the game is stopped so that his one-on-one confrontation with the goalkeeper can be smothered by a scattered wall of 10 defenders. He suggests, logically, that no defenders be allowed in front of direct free kicks.

And if there is doubt in the linesmen's mind about an offsides, then. he should give the benefit of that doubt to the offense, not the defense. Whistle offsides only whenthe violation is obvious.

"I think the defender is better now than the forward," Pelé said." The defender and the strategy of the defender is much better than before. You don't see forwards and: wings like you saw before. I think the forwards must learn better to kick the ball."

He shrugged. Why can they not learn? But there are no more Peles, seeking greatness at the rate of $5° per month. His own son is a goalkeeper, after all, born of a rich father, and still frustrated by mon-who said anything

WHO CURRES?

THIS SOME SNOBBY, ELITIST:

AESTHETIC

ABOUT STUPID?

BOOKS

Nomination

By Timothy M. Phelps and Helen Winternitz. 433 pages. $24.95. Hyperion, 114 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10011

Reviewed by Patt Morrison A ND now for a little summer-school history lesson:

Nearly six centuries ago, Joan of Arc said that celestial voices exhorted her to do battle for France. Ultimately, it didn't matter whether the rest of the world believed that she heard voices; something roused Joan, Joan roused France, and France ultimately walloped the Eng-

And we all know what happened to

"Capitol Games," a hurry-up book about last fall's Senate hearings on Supreme Court nominee Clarence Thomas and the sexual harassment charges leveled by law professor Anita Hill, appears as women in unprecedented numbers are winning primary elections and anticipating November.
To those who believe Anita Hill and to those who think she was imagining the whole thing, there is an object lesson in Joan the Maid.

Newspaper, radio and TV coverage

CAPITOL GAMES: Clarence was wrenching enough as the hearings unfolded. Now, in cooler blood, comes this book, coherently reassembling the Story of a Supreme Court pieces and adding dimension and analysis. The news is no prettier than it was the first time — worse, in fact. But like a mstone-a stinks and tastes bad, and maybe we'll be better for taking it.

If you happened to be in a sensory-deprivation tank during that televised pajama-party-from-hell weekend last October, the sight of 14 white men, one black man and one black woman thrashing through the pain of centuries of sexual and racial politics became a Harpers Ferry for women, igniting anger over the whiteness and maleness of power and the trivializing of women's concerns. Yet there are moments in this book

when the titanic and exhausting battle over the nomination becomes almost peripheral to the ignoble spectacle of our civic machinery in motion. The authors' disgust between the covers seems to equal what voters are showing behind the voting-booth curtain. The title, "Capitol Games," signals to those who live mercifully outside the Beltway that, in case we'd forgotten, virtually anything truth, fairness, humanity -- can be tossed on the table as stakes in the great political game.

Pheips, who covers the Supreme Court for Newsday, had an early line on Hill's accusations and was subpoenced when the Senate went bunting for leaks instead of looking to the mote in its own very blackened eye. "Capitol Games" pulls the threads together into an allegorical tapestry that might be titled "The (Un-surprising) Triumph of Political Tactics over Truth."

From the moment Thomas's name first landed via fax machine in the office of then-White House Chief of Staff John Summu to the post-confirmation hoopla on the White House lawn (staged the day after the chief justice's wife died), the book scrutinizes the White House and those 14 white men of the Senate Judiciary Committee, the satellite political groups, the staffs, motives, factions, fears and Thomas and Hill themselves.

In a day-by-day and sometimes hourby-hour deconstruction of the public and private jockeying, Phelps and Winternitz indict equally the White House and the Senate committee.

They take the Republicans to task for smarmy ruthlessness, for their willing-ness to use race to their advantage with Thomas, as they had with Willie Horton. The Democrats are pilloried for their fumbling hesitancy and personal vulnerabilities (there sat Teddy Kennedy, a potted plant on the panel, hamstrung by ns personal scandals).

Thomas is quoted as telling William Gates, who had his own difficulties getting confirmed as CIA chief: "My motto is, Don't get mad, don't get even, get confirmed."

Patt Morrison is on the staff of the Los Angeles Times.

BRIDGE

By Alan Truscott

O NE of the most dramatic deals of the qualifying stage of the Pan-American Team Championships in Corpus Christi. Texas is shown in the diagramed deal. It occurred when Marcelo Branco and Gabriel Chagas of Brazil sat North and South.

Chagas decided the South hand was too strong for a jump to four hearts over a three-diamond opening. He made a take-out double, intending to bid his suit next, but did not forsee that he would have to do so at the seven-level. East's double of seven hearts was probably intended as a request for a spade lead. West obeyed orders by leading the spade queen, but that was fatal. South was able to ruff, maneuver a diamond ruff and cross to the club king. He then drew trumps and eventually took a winning club finesse against the queen; knowing that most of the missing clubs were on his left. A trump lead would have beaten the contract, and the opposing team would have gained 17 imps since the contract in the replay was six hearts. As it was Brazil gained 14.

North and South were vulnerable. North East 3 ◊ Dbl. Pass Pass West led the spade queen.

WIZARD of ID

I MADE A TIGER.

GUYS LIKE YOU JUST.

WANT A STUPID,

IT'S SUBTLE! IT'S BORING!

PANTING PLAYTHING!

HOW WILL THIS EVER APPEAL TO THE LOWEST COMMON

DENOMINATOR ?" IT'S COMPLETELY UNADAPTABLE

DOONESBURY

*I said. What would you everto without Dennis?"

SPORTS

Lewis, Reynolds Advance in U.S.

Compiled by Our Staff From Dispatches NEW ORLEANS - World record-holder Mike Powell has outdueled Carl Lewis in a highly antic-ipated long jump confrontation, while Butch Reynolds's bid to make the U.S. Olympic team continued without interruption.

Limon

rel of U.S. Inc.

ight Yet

hurtle figh a stays in space [

als, study droped

days and 21 bes

pelongs to the light

acord is need by

assador to lide

१ कार्यातिका क्षेत्र

अधियांका द्वा छ

and other make

अञ्चलका स्टि

s ir the circu

c 3" degrees es

在共享企业的 hursday Theyen

ervondeler ase of United

ier Lid carri

operationists pedding a stati

2.11 TEE

and The Mercelle

at Train Eg

्रे क्यां प्रकार स्टब्स्य प्रकार

100 mg 100 mg

Powell, who ended Lewis's 10year, 65-meet winning streak with a rould record of 8.95 meters (29 feet, 41/2 inches) at the 1991 World Championships, beat him for the second straight time Wednesday night.

Powell leaped 28-3½, the best in the world this year, on his third attempt, then passed on his final three jumps. Lewis settled for secand at 8.53 meters, the 65th time he has reached that distance.

But that put Lewis on the Olympic team, giving him the opportuni-ty to become the first three-time long jump gold medalist in the Games' history.

It also made up failing to make the team at 100 meters and losing a chance for a third straight gold in that event. Lewis finished sixth in the 100 last Saturday.

Reynolds, the suspended world record bolder at 400 meters, finished second in his semifinal heat. Quincy Watts, the NCAA champion from Southern California, won in 43.97 seconds, the fastest time since the 1988 Olympics and matching the sixth-best ever. Reyuolds' time of 44.14, a tie for 16thbest in history and third-fastest in the world this year, was much faster than that of Danny Everett, the 1988 Olympic bronze medalist, who won the other semifinal in 44.69. Steve Lewis, the 1988 Olymnic champion, followed Everett in 44.77, while 1991 world champion Antonio Pettigrew finished fifth and failed to get to the final. Reynolds was suspended for two years by the International Amateur Athletic Federation after testing positive for steroids in August 1990. His suspension expires Aug. two days after the Olympics.

If Reynolds does qualify for the team, the U.S. Olympic Committee said Wednesday night that is considering submitting his name for the team along with the Supreme Court order allowing him to compete at the trials.

Previously, the USOC said it could not name Reynolds to the team because its constitution forbids certifying ineligible athletes.

SIDELINES

Suspension of Howe Is Made Permanent

NEW YORK that Steve Howe "has finally extinguished his opportunity to play major league baseball," Commissioner Fay Vincent made the Yankee pitcher's indefinite suspension

Monday's decision marks the first time a commissioner has permanently suspended a player for a drug-related matter. Howe, who had been suspended six times previously, has entered a guilty plea to attempted possession of cocaine.

For the Record

*The Houston Rockets and Seattle SuperSonics will open the 1992-93 NBA season in Yokohama on Nov. 7 and 8, marking the second time in three years the league has begun its regular season in Japan, it was announced Thursday. (AP) Salvatore (Toto) Schillaci, the World Cap hero who fell out of favor with Juventus, signed a three-year, $3.6 million contract Thursday to play with Internazionale of Milan next season in the Italian first divi-

Barry Metrose, who has coached Adirondack of the American Hockey League for three years, has been hired as coach of the NHL Angeles Kings (AP) bby Bonilla of the New York Los Angeles Kings. Mets was suspended two games by National League President Bill White for charging Chicago pitcher Shawn Boskie and throwing an umpire to the ground in a game Monday night, but will continue playing until his appeal receives a hearing. (UPI) million as a transfer fee.

Quotable

Darren Daulton, the Philadelphia Phillies' catcher, on teammate John Kruk, the portly first baseman who leads the National League in batting: "Like they say, it ain't over till the fat guy

A member of the African National Congress and the National Olympic Committee of South Africa warned Thursday against calling for a renewed sports boycott, Renters reported from Johannesburg.

"We're dealing with the international community and we cannot call for a boycott today and three days later go back to them and ask to be readmitted again," said Mluleki George, a veteran anti-apart-heid campaigner and ANC member who is vice president of the Olympic committee

■ Delay for Krabbe Denied Katrin Krabbe's request for a delay in her IAAF hearing has been denied, the suspended German sprinter's lawyer said Thursday, Reuters reported from Bonn.

WHO Cites Drug Use

As many as 20 percent of the athletes polled in Western comtries admit using drugs to boost performance, The Associated Press reported from Geneva, citing a World Health Organization survey. Drug use at all levels of sport is so widespread that it threatens ruining the health of many athletes, the UN agency said. "Limited surveys" in Australia, Canada, Italy, Britain and the United States show between 6 percent and 20 percent of those questioned have used some drugs, including steroids, cocaine and human growth hormone but excluding alco-hol and tobacco, WHO said.

Javier Sánchez of Spain was in a flippant mood after losing, 7-6 (7-4), 6-3, 6-4, to Jeremy Bates, Britain's new hero after upsetting Michael Chang in Tuesday's first-round match at Wimbledon.

McEnroe Outlasts Cash, Courier and Agassi Gain

WIMBLEDON, England John McEnroe won a tension-filled battle of former champions with Pat Cash in a five-set match Thursday that produced heroic tennis and high drama

McEnroe, a three-time Wimbledon champion, lost a pair of tie-breakers but rallied to defeat Cash, the 1987 champion, 6-7 (3-7), 6-4, 6-7 (1-7), 6-3, 6-2, before a reverent

Centre Court crowd. Though McEnroe is 33 and Cash only a part-time player, the duo frolicked like hyperactive teenagers —diving after balls, sprinting after lobs and slamming aces and win-

The two unseeded players also threw rackets, screamed at themselves and questioned calls throughout the four-hour match that added a needed touch of drama to a tournament that has produced few upsets so far.

Most seeds continued their steady, though unspectacular, progress on Thursday.

The top seed, Jim Courier, who has not lost a set since the quarterfinals of the French Open earlier this month, defeated Byron Black,

Andre Agassi, the 12th seed. needed a set to get comfortable against Eduardo Masso before romping to a 4-6, 6-1, 6-3, 6-3 vic-

Other players advancing included ninth-seeded Guy Forget and 14th-seeded Wayne Ferreira. For-

3-6, 6-3, 10-8, and Ferreira reached the third round with a 6-3, 6-3, 6-7 (3-7), 6-3 defeat of Christo van

Rensburg But sixth-seeded Petr Korda was eliminated by Jakob Hlasek in a marathon match. Korda, who lost to Courier in the French Open final carlier this month, was defeated 4-6, 3-6, 6-3, 7-6 (9-7), 16-14 by Hlasek in a match that lasted 4 hours, Jennifer Capriati won 17 of the first 19 points as she crushed Pam Shriver, 6-2, 6-4, in a Centre Court mismatch that was much more lopsided than the score indicated.

Joining the sixth-seeded Capriati in the third round were defending champion Stelli Graf and ninetime champion Martina Navrati-

Graf, the second seed this year, breezed to a 6-1, 6-1 defeat of Marianne Werdel and has dropped only three games in two matches.

Navratilova, seeded fourth, completed a 6-2, 3-6, 6-0 victory over Kimberly Po in a match that began

Wednesday. Also advancing were ninth-seed-Manuela Maleeva-Fragniere, 11th-seeded Jana Novotna, 13thseeded Zina Garrison and 16th-

Conchita Martinez, the eighth seed but a poor grass-court player, lost, 6-3, 5-7, 6-4, to Natalia Zverseeded Judith Wiesner.

McEnroe, who won his last a 6-2, 3-6, 6-0 victory.

get survived a five-set thriller to Grand Slam title in 1984, provided eliminate Anders Jarryd, 4-6, 6-3, the perfect counterpunch to Cash's the perfect counterpunch to Cash's hard serves. The American used his traditional arsenal of drop shots; lobs and sharply angled volleys to defeat the 27-year-old Australian, who has played only a handful of tournaments this year and fallen to 191st in the world. Cash won the first tie-breaker, 7-3, and the second, 7-1, but he came unraveled in the final two sets as McEnroe produced hints of his old brilliance while complaining about line calls. Capriati, 16, slammed winners from all over the court and tantalized her opponent with soft lobs.

Shriver, who turns 30 next week, was overwhelmed by Capriati's shots and had little power on her own strokes. Shriver simply punched the ball back at times. rather than hitting full strokes.

At one point in the first set, Shriver yelled "Go Out!" as a Capriati lob sailed over her head — and then raised her arms in mock triumph when the ball went long. "I think I played extremely well," Capriati said. "I even felt comfortable coming to the net." While Shriver was embarrassed by a younger rival. Navratilova was rallying to defeat another member of the younger generation.

The match was tied at one set apiece when darkness suspended play Wednesday evening with Navratilova struggling. But she quickly took control Thursday to finish off

NBA Draft: Very Good, Very Costly

PORTLAND, Oregon - In a National Basketball Association college draft laden with good players but loaded with potential booby traps, there were no surprises among the first four selections.

The Orlando Magic took Shaquille O'Neal, the 7-foot, 1-inch (2.18-meter) center from Louisiana State, on Wednesday night. Alonzo Mourning, the 6-10 Georgetown center, went to the Charlotte Hornets; Christian Laettner, the 6-10 Duke forward, to the Minnesota Timberwolves, and Jim Jackson, the 6-6 Ohio State swingman, to the Dallas Mavericks. Among NBA observers, it was nearly themselves significantly. So, apparently, did the New York Knicks, who acquired veteran shooting guard Rolando Blackman, 33, from Dal-las before the draft for their first-round

manimous that those teams improved draft pick in 1995. In another predraft deal, Utah traded forward Blue Edwards, guard Eric Mur-dock and the 23d pick of the first round

Krystkowiak and guard Jay Humphries. "It's the deepest draft in years," said an NBA college scout, Marty Blake. "But you have better done your homework on some of these guys."

pay the escalating prices for these soonto-be-millionaires. Orlando faces a daunting task in trying to satisfy O'Neal, whose demands are Phoenix as the No. 22 pick. The Razor-year for a long-term deal.

LaPhonso Ellis of Notre Dame, whose stock rose during tryout camps, was selected by Denver as the No. 5 pick.

Denver also had the 13th pick, used to select Bryant Stith, who played mostly forward at Virginia but is projected as a guard in the NBA. Tom Gugliatta of North Carolina State went to Washington at No. 6, followed by Walt Williams of Maryland to Sacraento as No. 7.

Adam Keefe of Stanford, projected to be chosen as early as No. 5, wound up the 10th choice, by Atlanta. Offensive-mind-ed Harold Miner of Southern Cal was Miami's selection at No. 12. UCLA's Tracy Murray and Don Mac-

Lean slipped to 18th and 19th, Murray taken by San Antonio, MacLean by Detroit. Detroit then traded MacLean and William Bedford to the Los Angeles Clippers for Olden Polynice and the Clippers' second-round draft picks in 1996 and '97. The Spurs' pick of Murray reportedly was called by Milwaukee, which is expected to trade Dale Ellis to San Antonio for the rights to Murray next week. The Bucks had two other first-round picks and used both on players from Arkansas. They used the No. 8 selection to draft forward Todd Day and the Not to mention saved a few dollars to No. 23 choice for guard Lee Mayberry. Arkansas became the fifth school to have three players chosen in the first round. Center Oliver Miller went to backs also had a player chosen in the second round, Isaiah Morris, who was Miami's choice in the No. 37 spot.

Clarence Weatherspoon of Southern Mississippi went to Philadelphia as No. 9. At 6-7 and 240 pounds, Weatherspoon is considered as close as the 76ers could get to a wide body to replace Charles Barkley, who was traded to Phoe-"I'm excited about going to Philadelphia and filling Barkley's shoes," Weather-spoon said. "That's going to be a big job." Robert Horry of Alabama was the No. 11 choice of Houston. Malik Sealy of St. John's was the No. 14 pick of Indiana. Anthony Peeler, who was placed on five years' probation for an assault conviction last week, was chosen by the Los Angeles Lakers in the No. 15 spot. Peeler was arrested again on assault charges Monday, but those charges were

Randy Woods, a sharpshooting 6-foot guard from La Salle, was a surprisingly high choice at No. 16 by the Clippers. Doug Christie of Pepperdine was cho-n by Seattle at No. 17. Hubert Davis of North Carolina went to New York at No. 20. Boston chose Jon Barry of Georgia Tech, son of former NBA star Rick Golden State spurned a big man by passing Elmore Spencer of UNLV in favor of guard Latrell Sprewell of Alabama at No. 24. Spencer was picked up by the Clippers with the next selection.

Who Went Where When

FIRST ROUND

1, Orlanda, Shaquille O'Neal, 7-1, a. L. Su; 2. Charlette, Alanzo Mourning. 6-10, c. Georgetown; 2. Minnesota, Christian Laetiner, 6-11, f. Duke; 4. Dallas, Jim Jackson, 6-6, a. Ohio State; 5. Denver, La Phonso Ellis, 6-8, i, Notre Dame; 6. Washington, Tom Gugliotta, 6-79, t. North Carolina State; 7. Sacrumento, Walt Williams, 6-8, a. Maryland; 8. Milwaukes, Todd Day, 6-81s, f. Arkansos; 7. Philoselphia, Clarence Weatherspoon, 6-6, f. Southern Miss; 10. Allanta, Adam Keefe, 6-79, f. Stanford; 11. Houston, Robert Horry, 6-8, f. Alabama; 12. Miami, Haradd Mâner, 6-5, a. Sauthern Col; 13. Denver (from New Jersey), Bryant Stiffs, 6-5, a. Virginia.

6-5, g. Virginia. 14. Indiana. Molik Seaty, 6-7, f. St. John's; 15; L.A. Lakers. Antho 14. Indiana, Moliti Seaty, 6-7, f. St. John's; 15; L.A. Lakers, Anthony Peeler, 6-4 g, Missour; 16. L.A. Clippers, Randy Woods, 6-8 g, LoSalle; 17. Seatile, Dous Christie, 6-6 g, Peeperdine; 18. San Antonio, Trocy Murray, 6-8, f. UCLA; 19. Defroit, Dan MacLean, 6-9, f. UCLA; 20. New York, Hubert Dovis, 6-4 g, North Carolino; 21. Baston, Jon Barry, 6-5 g, Georgia Tech; 22. Proentx, Oliver Miller, 6-8, f. Aricansas; 23. Militouskee (from Utah). Lee Mayberry, 6-2 g, Aricansas; 24. Golden State, Latrell Sprewell, 6-4 g, Alabama; 25. L.A. Clippers; (from Cleveland). Elmons Seance; 2-6, Libil V.; 26. Partitond, Down Johnson, 6-7. Elimore Seencer, 7-0, C UNLV: 2A. Portland, Dove Johnson, 6-7, f. Syrocuse; 27. Chicago, Byron Houston, 6-4, f. Oklahama State;

26. Minnesolo, Marian Maxey, 6-8/2, f. Texas-El Paso; 29. New Jersey (fram Orlando finough Chicoso), P.J. Brown, 6-11, c. Louisiana Tech; 30. Dallas, Sean Roeks, 6-18, f. Arizono; 31. Portland (from Denver), Reggle Smith, 6-8/2, f. Texas Christian; 22. Washinaton, Brent Price, 6-19, Oklohoma; 31. Chicogo (from Socramento), Carey Williams, 6-2, g. Oklohoma; 32. Chicogo (from Malwaukee), Chris Smith, 6-3, g. Canecticut; 35. Chartotte, Tony Bennett, 6-0, a. Wiscansin-Green Bay; 35. L.A. Lakers (from Philadelphia through Minnesota and Milwaukee), Duane Cooper, 6-1, q. Southern Cot; 37. Milami, Isalah Morris, 6-8, f. Arkansos; 38. Atlanta, Elmer Bennett, 6-0, a. Notre Dome; 37. Chicogo (from Indiano), Lifterial Green, 6-1, q. Georgia; 40. New Jersey, Sleve (from Indiana), Litterial Green, 6-1, 9, Georgia; 40, New Jersey, Sleve Regers, 6-5, a, Alabama State; 41, Houston, Papeye Jones, 6-8, 6,

Golden State (from L.A. Clissers), Predros Danilovic, 6-5, 1, Bel-prade; 44, San Antonio, Henry Williams, 6-2 e, North Corolino-Char-totte: 45, Seattle, Chris, Kins, 6-8, f. Wake Forest; 46. Denver (from Detroit), Robert Werdann, 7-8, c, St. John's; 47. Boston, Darren Morn-Ingstor, 6-11, c. Phitsburgh; 48. Proents; trom new two ar, to necessary, 6-7, f. Duke; 49. Phoenic, Ron Ellis, 6-7, f. Louisiana Tech; 50. Golden State. Matt Fish, 6-11, c. Worth Carolina-Wilmingston; 51. Minnesota (from Urbh), Tim Burroughs, 6-8, f. Jackstonville; 20. Chicago (fr

Allwaukee Bucks traded Joy Humphries, guard, and Larry Krystkowiak, forward, to Utah for Blue Edwards, forward, Eric Mus-dock, guard, and a 1992 first-round draft pick (Lee Mayberry). Detroit traded the rights to Don MacLean, torward, and William Bedford, center, to Los Angeles Clippers for Olden Polynica, center, and second-round draft picks in 1996 and 1997.

Twins' Tapani Beats Angels on 2-Hitter

strikeout complete game in Minne-apolis on Wednesday night to beat the California Angels, 11-0. "It's the same stuff," he said, "but

I'm getting a little better results. I'm not doing anything different than when I was going bad. The balls are

The 10 strikeouts were a career high for Tapani, who pitched his first complete game of the season. He had reached the seventh inning just once in his last six starts.

first, then retired 18 straight before reach base was Lee Stevens, on Ta-It was not a costly error. The Twins led 4-0 at the time, and adder hit two home runs in Detroit, helping hand Boston its the seventh three homers in two days, has 16, and 60 RBIs, in the year. Blue Jays 3, Rangers 2: Roberto Alomar drove in three runs with a triple and scored on a wild pitch in

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Orioles 8, Brewers 4: Leo Gomez singled to break a ninth-inning tie

Athletics 7, Mariners 2: Rickey Henderson doubled twice and scored twice in Oakland while Dave Stewart held Seattle to four hits over eight innings.

run with two outs in the ninth in

SCOREBOARD

BASEBALL Major League Standings

AMERICAN LEAGUE

.09 571 534 .493 .429 .429 .420 .408 sion. Juventus reportedly got $6.8 NATIONAL LEAGUE

Wednesday's Line Scores

Chrystond 963 969 969—3 7 0 Chrystond 963 969 969—4 2 0 Scudder, Liliquist (7), Power (8), Wick-under (9) and Salarmar; Hibberd, R.Hermandez (9) and Fist, W.—R.Hermandez, 2-0, L.— Power, 1-2, HR.—Chicoso, G.Bell (8).

201 001 004—6 14 (200 011 000—4 7

Metry York 401 808 618—4 15 9 Kmpsns City 901 900 828—3 7 1 J. Johnson, Habyen (3), Farr (9) and Nakes; Red, Al. Davis (4), Heaton (7), Gardon (8) and Macfarlane W.-J. Johnson, 2-2, L.—Reed, 1-3. Sv.—Farr (11), HR—New York, Maos (8). Teresto 988 630 688-3 16 8
Texas 288 688 689-2 8 1
Wells, D.Ward (7), Henke (9) and Borders:
Witt, Mathews (8), Rosers (8) and McGinnis.

nto, Nhani (1). 918 988 987—2 7 1 k 129 988 984—3 5 6 Ison, Scanlan (8) and Wilkins; Goo-

Tenskbury, McClure (7), Penzz (8), Le.Smith (9) and Pagnazzi Drubek, Gleston (8) and Lo-Valliere, W—Tenksbury, 8-2, L—Drubek, 5-6. Hossion 218 661 286—6 12 1 Cincissati 668 663 886—7 13 6 Hornisch, X.Hernandez (5), R.Murbity (6), Mallicont (7) Researc (7)

MEM'S SINGLES, SECOND ROUND Pete Sampras (5), U.S., del, Todd Wood-ridge, Austrelia, 7-6 (7-2), 7-6 (7-4), 6-7 (7-9), 6-

4; Derrick Resigna, U.S., our James 7 2004. Peru, 6-3, 6-3; Jim Courier (1), U.S., def. Byran Block, Zimbobwe, 6-4, 6-1, 6-4; Wayne Perreira (14), South Africa, def. Christo van Rensburg, South Africa, 6-3, 6-1, 6-7, 1-3; Bryan Sheiton, U.S., def. Olivier Dekaltre, Franca, 7-6 (7-5), 6-3, 6-3; Christian Soccana, Germany, def. Codric france, 76 (1°2), ... Christian Societiu, Germany, Ser. Char-Pioline, France, 46, 64, 0-6, 7-5, 7-5; Jerem) Pioline, France, 46, Loyler Sanchez, Spain, 7-Rotes, Britain, del. Jovier Sanchuz, Spain, 74 (7-4), 6-3, 6-4; Thierry Champion, France, def. Leonordo Lovalin, Mexico, 7-4 (7-5), 6-3, 5-7, 7-5; Jokob Hisselt, Switzerland, def. Petr Karda (6), Czechoslovakia, 4-6, 3-6, 6-3, 7-6 (9-7), 16-14: Andrei Olhovskiy, CIS. del. Kent Kinneor,

14; Angret Onnovatry, U.S., 64, 74, 63; LUIS Herraro, Mexico, def. Shuzo Muhsuoko, Japan, 6-4, 6-4, 5-7, 4-6, 6-3; Gay Porget (7), France, def. Anders Jorryd, Sweden 4-4, 6-3-6, 6-3, 18-8; Anders Agossi (12), U.S., def. Educardo Acasso, Beighum, 4-6, 6-1, 6-3, 6-3; teles Atternas, U.E. det. Bart Cref. Australia. 6-7 (3-7), 6-4, 6-7 (1-7), 6-3, 6-2; Borls Becker (4), kla. 44, 64, 64, 36, 63; David Wheaton (16). U.S. del. Todd Martin, U.S. 63, 63, 67 (3-7), 63. WOMEN'S SINGLES, SECOND ROUND Judith Wiesner (16), Austria, def. Kataryna

Nowek, Poland, 6-9, 6-1; Zina Gerrison (13), U.S. det. Lindo Harvev-Wild, U.S., 6-2, 6-4; Kristin Godridae, Australia, def. Claudie Kohde-Klisch, Germany, 6-4, 7-5; Martina Novratiiova (4).U.S.,def. Kimberty Pa. U.S.-6-2, 3-4, 6-9; Martinan De Swardt, South Africa, def. Audra Keller, U.S., 6-2, 5-7, 7-5; Monuela Mateure, Fragniers (9), Swifteniand, def. Maleevo-Frasniere (9), Switzer Kathy Rinaldi, U.S., 4-6, 6-3, 6-4; otrina Adams. U.S., 6-3, 6-4; Patricia Hy, Canada, del. Petra Thoren, Inland, 6-2, 6-7 (5-7), 6-1; Patry Fendick, U.S., set. Debble Graham. U.S., 7-5, 7-5; Rika Hir akt. Japan, det. Tammy Whittinston, U.S. 6-1, 7-5; Lori McNeil, U.S. det. Ren -a; Lori Michell, U.S. def. Remae Stubba Australia, 6-1, 6-3; Natalio Zvereva, Russia, def. Conchita Mortinez (8). Spain, 6-2, 5-7, 6-1; Gabrielo Sobatini (3), Arpentina, def. Isobelle

BASKETBALL

GROUP A

MINNESOTA-Signed Gus Gandarillas

ny Guzman, pitcher, from Tacoma.

Behind the plate, Harper hardly had to move his glove for Tapani. Tigers 5, Red Sox 1: Cecil Field-Kevin Tapani insists nothing has changed for him even if his statistics suggest otherwise. Tapani, who lost four of his first straight loss. Fielder, who has hit five decisions, threw a 2-hit, 10-

just going at people now."

He gave up a ground single to Rene Gonzales with two out in the Junior Felix doubled with two out in the seventh. The only other Angel to ed two runs in the bottom of the Brian Harper got four hits and bases-loaded triple in the eighth. sas City.

Arlington, Texas, capping a threerun fifth inning for Toronto.

as Baltimore won in Milwaukee.

White Sox 4, Indians 3: Tim pani's fielding error in the seventh. Raines singled home the winning Chicago. Yankees 6, Royals 3: Andy Stan-seventh and five more in the eighth.

Brian Harper got four hits and of his career and Dion James got batted in four runs, three on his three of New York's 15 hits in Kan-

Smoltz's 2-Hitter Gives Braves Shutout No. 3

The Associated Press

John Smoltz pitched a two-hitter and struck out 10 as the streaking Atlanta Braves beat the San Francisco Giants, 5-0, for their third fifth and three unearned runs in the straight shutout and lifth consecutive victory.

The Braves finished 11-1 on their homestand, the most successful in Atlanta history, bettering the 10-4 mark set a year ago. Their pitchers extended their scoreless streak to Smoltz gave up a two-out single to Will Clark in the first inning and another two-out single to Clark in the ninth. In between, he walked two and hit a batter in his second shutout of the season and fifth complete game.

He retired 17 straight batters, starting in the second imning, went on to win for the fifth time in six decisions. He also singled in a run. "I've been throwing like this for a while," Smoltz said. "I feel like I'm going to win every time I go out there now." Otis Nixon hit his first home run in nearly two years and drove in his first homer in the majors; three runs as the Braves won for the Moises Alou drove in three runs 21st time in 24 games. Atlanta starters are 16-1 with a 1.78 ERA in the last 24 games. The Philadelphia.

Giants, who have lost nine of 11. have scored only one run in their last 34 innings. Reds 9, Astros 6: Six runs in the sixth, on an error by Craig Biggio and RBI singles by Barry Larkin and Hal Morris, beat Houston and maintained the Reds' one-game NATIONAL LEAGUE lead in the West as they prepared for the Braves' arrival in Cincinnati on Friday night. Cardinals 4, Pirates 1: Five ground-ball singles scored all four runs in the fourth as St. Louis won in Pittsburgh with Bob Tewksbury pitching 61/2 shutout innings on three days' rest. Mets 3, Cubs 2: Dwight Gooden doubled in a run in New York as he won for the first time in a month and New York won its fourth straight. Gooden held Chicago to six hits, striking out three, in eight Expos 8, Phillies 1: Montreal

patcher Ken Hill got two hits, one with two doubles and Delino De-

Shields went 4 for 5 against visiting

.wings." IFIE LOOP?

AT&T USADirect* Service can get you back to the office from over 100 countries.

Just dial the access number of the country you're in. You'll be connected to AT&T in the U.S. and we'll complete your call fast.

DIAL ACCESS NUMBERS

OBSERVER A Rap on Dumping

By Russell Baker

TEW YORK -Now that Governor Clinton has dumped Jesse Jackson, President Bush may have to dump Dan Quayle. This has nothing to do with the vice president's inability to spell "potato." George Washington was a terrible speller too, but a pretty good president nevertheless.

On the other hand, Bush needs a sture that will make millions see him as decisive and politically conrageous. Clinton showed the way by dumping Jackson in the now famous dust-up about Sister Souljah.

By deliberately embarrassing Jackson, Clinton was declaring independence from an important branch of his party which has made insistent claims upon recent Democratic nominees.

With this stroke, we are told, Clinton has either (1) thrown away the black vote which is part of his party's "core" strength, or (2) won the hearts of both working-class whites and family-oriented blacks who don't hold with Sister Souljah's apocalyptic vision of interra-

What's remarkable is that, whereas Clinton's campaign last week was as silent as the grave where it seemed at rest, there is now almost as much talk about Clinton as about Ross Perot.

This raises the question whether Perot may now have to dump somebody, especially if Bush seizes the courage-and-independence initiative by dumping Quayle. It's hard to think of somebody Perot could dump with any chance of making a splash as loud as you get by dumping a Jackson or a Quayle.

He reaped a two-day media uproar recently by hiring Democrat Hamilton Jordan and Republican Ed Rollins as deputy masterminds for his campaign, but these are not the kind of people whose dumping amazes all humanity. I'd guess that Ross Perot will have to dump himself if he wants to keep up with compeniors who have the likes of Jesse Jackson and Dan Quayle ripe for the dumping.

Still, one never knows how these things will cut. Dumping himself might set off such a demand for Perot for president that the election would be a mere formality. On the other hand, a lot of people might think that dumping himself showed Perot lacked the famous "fire in the belly" without which, political columnists insist, nobody is fit to be president. Which would be the end

In the meantime, back at the White House where Clinton's Jackson dumping is being watched with, we can assume, the usual total confusion, what might a less than totally confused White House be

First, it might be struck by the strong parallels between Messrs. Jackson and Quayle. Each represents a faction within his party which is highly suspect among mid-dle-of-the-road folk.

Jackson represents Democratic liberalism, now denounced by conservatives as "ultra-leftists," "leftliberals," "arch-liberals" and, by whatever name, the source of all troubles since the Fall. Quayle is the hero of the conservative right with a passion for ideological purity that makes the faithful despise

Bush's pragmatism. Neither crowd has much appeal for the bulk vote, the big middle-of-the-road crowd, which seems to be turned off by both parties but enchanted with Perot, part of whose charm seems to be that he has no ideology whatever.

Logic might argue the case for a Quayle dumping by Bush. As with Clinton's Jackson dumping, it might suggest he is a fellow with the courage to assert his independence of contentious and insistent ideological factions and might revive public credibility in him as a candidate genuinely determined on change. Dumping also has its dangers, of course. It can justly be said, for example, that Clinton has now played the race card in a calculated effort to win white working-class Democrats back from the Republicans. Sister Souljah made it easy for him, however, with her overwrought rap chants and off-the-cuff oratory extolling bloodshed. Her art exploits a black rage about American racism which is surely justified. Whether commercial exploitation of it is justified de-pends on how you feel about throwing around kerosene when your house is on fire. After Jackson accepted her in his Rainbow Coalition, it was easy for Clinton to make him seem like a kerosene salesman.

Playing Santa Claus With a Heart of Ice

By Bernard Weinraub New York Times Service

OS ANGELES - Max Shreck, the villainous tycoon OS ANGELES — Max Shreez, the sleazy deals in a in "Batman Returns," would cut sleazy deals in a restaurant like Lucy's El Adobe. Dark. Anonymous. Nondescript. A Barry Manilow song crooning on the radio. Nestled on the unfancy eastern side of Melrose Avenue near Paramount Studios.

Christopher Walken enters to an enthusiastic welcome by the two waitresses. The actor, who portrays Shreck and is in Los Angeles to promote the movie, grins broadly as he strolls into the back room of his favorite L.A. restaurant. The food is zesty, the prices cheap and the cheerfully no-nonsense style reminds him of Queens, the New York City borough that nurtured him, the borough whose accent lingers heavily in his voice.

In Hollywood, Walken is viewed as a skilled, untemperamental New York actor who has never quite reached stardom (despite an Academy Award), in part because of the eerie, ambiguous and sometimes quietly violent men that he portrays.

Although he lives in New York, Walken, 49, looks very much like a Hollywood actor: tall, tanned and lean with sunken eyes. He wears a loose-fitting Italian-style suit over a casual shirt. His hair is fashionably spiky, and he's wearing dark glasses. As the Machiavellian bad guy in "Batman Returns," Walken virtually chews up the scenery playing Gotham City's Santa Claus with a heart of ice.

"I like Max," Walken said. "I tend to play mostly villains and twisted people. Unsavory guys. I think it's my face, the way I look. If you do something effective, producers want you to do it again and again. I've been in show business so long. Maybe there's a strangeness connected to that. I mean I don't play lovers. I wish I did. At least once I'd like to have a crack at one of those guys. A heartbreaker. Some people are born to it. I'm not. I saw an interview with Walter Matthau, and he said he used to play the villain, and if you're not really handsome and not really homely, they give you the villain part. That applies to me."

The actor, at least publicly, doesn't quite live up to the image of the creepy roles he portrays. He jogs religiously, and in L.A. drivers honk their horns when they see him pushing along Sunset Boulevard. He's an accomplished cook, specializing in healthy foods, and he keeps very thin. But during the filming in Italy of "The Comfort of the quirky and sexually violent 1991 film, he gained 20 pounds (9 kilos) because of the ongoing buffet of pasta and sweets on the movie set.

"The character in that film, Robert, got to me personally, and that's rare," he said. "Usually, I take off my costume and go home and that's it. In that movie I was a profoundly disturbed person. It's always more difficult when they're smart. He was a terrible man. That sex equals death in that movie scared me. He really bothered me. I was glad to say goodbye to Robert."

The customers in the restaurant are very cool about

Walken, even though he has a leading role in the biggest film of the year, playing a power-starved industrialist in Gotham City who specializes in industrial waste and, worst of all, tosses Michelle Pfeiffer out the window of a high rise. In the movie, Walken wears an outrageous wig, some fancy costumes and struts around, barking with a New York accent that reminds more than a few filmeoers of Donald Trump. "I've heard that," Walken said. "Other people say that I speak like him. Well, we both come from Oueens. It's true in most movies I don't use my own voice.

"I tend to play mostly villains and twisted people," Christopher Walken says. "Unsavory guys."

I'm always from somewhere. Gotham City is really New York. I was born there. So I used my own voice.

That's it. I never thought about Donald Trump. I thought about the big show business moguls I read about. Sol Hurok. Sam Goldwyn. Those guys who fought their way to the top. And then I thought of a lawyer I know. An older guy. Real tough, Real New York. Real smart. You wouldn't want to cross this guy. I thought about him a lot in this part. He's one of those guys - too mean to die." Walken is self-deprecating, self-assured but quite private. He picks his words carefully. Although he doesn't put L.A. down he prefers New York, where he lives with his wife, Georgianne Walken, a casting director, in a West Side apartment. The Walkens, who met as dancers in a touring company of "West Side Story," have been married for 25 years. "People come up to me all the time in New York," he said. "Not for autographs. but to talk about movies, often in a very scientific way."

Walken says that the tribal rites of Hollywood still puzzle him. At the huge, glittering opening the other night of "Batman Returns," Walken arrived in a limousine hired by Warner Brothers. "I wore a tuxedo," he said, shaking his head. "I felt ridiculous. I was the only person in that entire place with a tuxedo. There were a lot of motorcycle jackets. A lct of T-shirts. A lot of sporty clothes. I don't know. I felt like I was Robert Montgomery or somebody. At the party afterward, somebody came up to me and said, Gee, you sure look nice.' I felt like a jerk! In New York, I

His father, who is now retired, owned Walken's Bakery in Astoria, but it was his mother who thrust her son into show business. "In the 1950s television was being born, and there was this phenomenon, about 90 live shows from New York.

so there were hundreds of kids from Queens, kids from bluecollar families, doing TV shows," he recalled. "By the time I was 7, I did walk-ons, catalogue modeling, you name it. In the Queens where I grew up, you didn't go bowling on Saturday; you went to dancing school."

- Project Control of the Control of

Despite his early work in television, it was not until Walken was a teenager that he landed his first stage role: "Best Foot Forward," an off-Broadway musical starring Liza Minnelli.

Walken said that the current role turned out to be one of the most pleasant of his career. And the name of his character, Max Shreck, is actually an "in" joke by Tim Burton, the film's director. Shreck was a German actor who starred as the first Dracula in F. W. Murnau's 1922 classic "Nosferatu."

"Max is absolutely out there," the actor said. "He makes no bones about his intentions. He's good to his family. He wears spais. I always wanted to wear spais." He smiles. Walken puts on his dark glasses and is about to leave the restaurant. He is starting a new film, "Scam," a comedy-drama with Lorraine Bracco, in Florida shortly.

But what seems to especially involve Walken is a one-act play about Elvis Presley that he wrote in the five months he was filming "Bannan Returns." Walken is a longtime fan of Elvis, who he said "was very pure, but took this beautiful gift and dissolved into this toxic wasteland." Walken is calling the play "Milk Cow Boogie," after one of Elvis' songs, and he took the Elvis role in a recent reading of the play at Lincoln Center. "The theme is, Elvis is still with us," Walken said. "He's older. He's his own age. He's lost a lot of weight. He's just been away. He's doing very well."

PEOPLE

What's Unrewarding? Doing Ed Koch a Favor

New York's mayors, old and new, stick together. Although former Mayor Ed Kock has given his successor, David Dinkins, a lot of grief since losing in the 1989 prima ry, Dinkins has issued Koch a parking pass good for any spot in the city. Always gracious, Koch explained the relevant etiquette: This was not a favor," he insisted. "It was a courtesy provided by the mayor to a former mayor."

The remains of the pianist, composer and statesman Ignace Jan Paderewski are being moved from Arlington National Cemetery and will arrive in Warsaw on Monday, the 51st anniversary of his death in 1941 at the age of 80. The world's leading pianist in the early decades of the century, Paderewski was the first prime minister of modern Poland, from 1919 to 1921. In 1963, President John F. Kennedy declared that the pianist would rose in Arlington until Poland was free. . □

In the long tradition of the emit nent being embarrassed by their relatives, a nephew of the newest Supreme Court justice, Clarence Thomas, was arrested on charges of selling crack cocaine in Savannah Georgia, Mark Eliot Martin, 23. was swept up in a sting operation that netted 30 people accused of buying or selling the drug. قامطردريم 🗖 📜 😀 تداري

In U.S. politics, an ability to spell seems to be emerging as a criterion for holding national of fice. Unlike Vice President Dan Quayle, whose difficulties in spelfing "potato" are well known, Ross Perot, in what was apparently a chance encounter with a spelling bee winner on a Washington street. asked Amanda Goad, 13, what her winning word was. She told him and he carefully spelled out L-Y-Ç-E-U-M. "That's right," she said.

Dr. William Kennedy Smith, acquitted of rape in December, has begun his medical residency in New Mexico. "People have, you know, been terrific and it's just a wonderful feeling," he said.

The French actor Gérard Depar A dies told schoolchildren in Paris that the movies, of which he has made 60, had brought him "free-

HOLIDAYS AND TRAVEL

CONRAD

This summer luxury costs less

Conrad London, the all suite hotel by the River Thames £99 per night plus VAT 175%. minimum 3 nights mc 1 w/e night, or £135 plus VAT for one night Valid 6th July - 31st August 1992 Telephone [44] (0)71 823 3000 Fat (44) (0)71 351 6525

CONRAD

Conrad Dublin exqueste luxury rooms in the historic city centre occupancy inclusive of VAT Subject to 15% service charge. Valid 1st June - 31st August 1992 Telephone (353) (1) 76 55 55

CONRAD

Conrad Istanbul, the finest new hotel in Turkey US$99 per room plus 12% government tax, single or double occu-Valid: 1st June – 31st August 1992 Telephone [90] (1) 174 10 00 Fax [90] (1) 174 10 88

can now stay at the finest hotels in each of these great cities your travel agent, direct with the hotel or through the Hilton

Adding great value to 3 great cities

CONRAD

LOW CO	OST FLI	GHTS
ACCES	S VOYA	GES Round Trip
New York Los Angeles	FI 295 F2135 F1860	P2280 F4105 F3420
Miami Montreal Rio de Janero	F1100 F3795	F2200 F5720
Australia Japan Landon	F4345 F4180 F530	F7920 F7700 F690
Dantair	ect to modifi	cotions
Tet 1-40 13.0)2.02 & 1-4 1-45 08 83	2.21 .46.94 35
6 rue Fierre Metro - ICE Sic. 17	Chatelet L 5.111)and	es Halies also
ACC Tour Credit Ly	ess IN LYCI contais, 129	nes Tue Servient

LOWEST AIR PARES from 33 countries and up to 50% discount in 1000's hotels in 125 countries with the US30 ETN Card. European Trovel Network, Dommot 30, 10/2 Amsterdam, Hofland. Tel (31) 23-6226/73, Fox-6382271. WORLDWIDE. Special charter New York, $183 one way and daily dispor-ture of lowest economy oir far. Tek (1) 42 89 10 B1 Fice 42 56 25 82 DABLY FUGHTS AT LOWEST FARES to any major North American int'l carport. Tek Form ($3-1) 47 04 67 51.

SIGHTSEEING COMPETANT WOMAN offers her time & cor to accompany old person or couple during visit in Foris or France.

Tel 1-45.83.96.91 or 1-47.23.52.72 LOOKING FOR A VACATION I COTTAGES IN ENGLAND, SCOTLAND OF WALES FROM 3 DAYS TO 3 WEEKS or more! Please contact. CENTOUR YOYAGES 41, rue Taribout
75007 PARS
Tel: 1-42813211 Fax: 1-42853361
In association with ENGUSH COUNTRY COTTAGES

FRANCE

HOTEL * RESIDENCE DU ROY PARIS, next to AVENUE MONTAIGNE and CHAMPS ELYSES 36 fully equipped rooms, suits, oportments with littlem, in on elegant

HOLIDAYS & TRAVEL

OWNER RENTS JULY-AUGUST-SSPT.
CANNES CRIVIET read to Naga Hilon, 3 bedrooms, 140 sq.m: F20,000 / sportful, CANNES, PALM BEACH Westerful, 1 bedroom and 2 bedroom apartments. F25,000 and F35,000 / serifs.
CAP D'ALC villa, 600 sq.m., sec view: F200,000 / month. MOUGUST, villa, next village, see view: F200,000 / month Tel Cannes (33) 9339 2112. Fax 9338 1402 Tel Poris (33-1) 4072 7500. Fax 4503 0549 building, Private car park. Tel (33-1) 42 89 59 59 Fest (33-1) 40 74 07 92 Corporate rates on request

HOTELS

HOTELS FRANCE

"chambres d'hetes" (F250/ night CENTER OF LECKOZIC, neur LA BALLE, Secshore & TGV neurby il Chantale Lapape (33) 40 23 17 01 ANDORRA

Spa & fitness center, Boll & convention rooms, Face 033,628,60244, Duty free. GREAT BRITAIN

COUNTRY MANOR HOME
15th Cont. (GRADE I) in heart of rural England (Sethold, Peocht mouted gorden, lentis court. 4 en-saite double bedrooms. Used modern conveniencis.
STAFFED, July-Jung.
Tel: Owmer UK 71 937 5901

PHILIPPINES

ADMIRAL HOTEL, 2138 Exces Blvd, Monilo, Philippinas. Tel: 5210/711. Telex 74240/498 ADHOTEL PM. Finst closs, 110 rooms fooing Monilo Boy.

BEST WESTERN HOTEL IA CORONA. 1166 M.H. del Pfor, Ernele, Monilo, Philippines Tel 625 26243-148, 527306 Fox 625 25213907. Near U.S. Embossy. ITALY ROME, HOTEL VICTORIA

HOTELS USA

COMING TO NEW YORK? Will find you a norm/opertuent coll 212-255-8018 (after 2 pm European trace) NYH, 104 W. 14th St., NY, NY 10011. CHRISTMAS GIFTS

VISIT GERMANY'S FAMOUS Cristness Village in Rothenburg ab
der Tauber - a neuer & an experience, you can choose and buy from over 65 thousand arriades. We are open all years & only a 2 hour drive from fronfact or Number. Call us at 0497961 48793 for exact opening hours.
Ki the Wohlfart's Weilmachstadorf
D-8803-Rothenburg ab der Tauber OLYMPIC RENTALS

MOTOR YACHT & MOORING in central Barcelona evaluate for Chympics. Takes 8-10 quests in leasing double statements. Complete with 1st class chief & crew. Tel: UK 44-71-402 7044. HOLIDAY RENTALS

CARIBBEAN ST. BARTHELENY, F.W.J.... Clear, dear ST.BARTHBEANY, F.W.J.... Geor, deen sportfang workers, white sand beaches, OMER 200 PRIVATE VACATION VILLAS - beachfront to hillside with pool, plus select holes. Our agents have inspected all villas personally for reservations on St. Barts, St. Martin, Barbados, hire Virgini Stands. — Call WIMCO U.S. (401)847-8012/for 847-6270, WIMCO/SEARTH Paris tel/fast (590)27 62-36/fea. 27 60 52.

Opens for you June 27th 1992.

Badrutt's Palace Hotel, 7500 St. Moritz 082/3 77 39

CAMAICRE COLUNE - LLECCA
rist country house in oliving grave, wonderful view. 5 double bedrooms, 4 bothrooms, 10 minutes by cor from Versitio beach. For revi in Augustweekly USS 3000 or monthly USS 5000.
Tel: (39.74, 799953 answering machines.

TODI UMBIRIA. Elegant country house with private pool for rart August 8. September. 4 weeks minimum. Accommodates 7-8 in Umary, 4 bedrooms, 4 bedrooms, 5 bedrooms

PARIS & SUBURBS

11th JRY - 16th AUGUST Exceptionally Charming In the heart of the MARALS. Owned by decretor, Large invog. disang, bothers area, 2 bedrooms, terroce, F18,000, Tel 1-42 78 58 12

PARIS, BOIS DE BOULOGNE. To rent

PARS, BOIS DE BOULDIER. 10 rain for August Superb duplex "Art Daco" 3 bedrooms, 2 bothnooms, huge living soom, with 8 metra high ceilings, din-ing soom, study, modern exposed letchen. F30,000. Tel: 1-46 03 50 21 evenings ofter 10pm or weekends.

Tel: 41/82/2 11 0	1, Fax: 082/3 77 39
HOLIDAY RENTALS	HOLIDAY RENTALS
FRENCH PROVINCES	GREAT BRITAIN
BEAUTIFUL APARTMENT ST-PAUL-DE-VENCE 160 sg.m. notependent, furnshed, new construction, 3 double betrooms with 3 bethrooms, I wing room with altegrated brichet, important terroos,	SPACIOUS LUXURY Self contained operiment suitable for a coupt. Iong or short lets. Magnificant views & passion for Instalic, Scalard smershes, Glouosetershire Tel. UK 291 e22 BIZ Fase 291 629 876. GREECE
breathloking sea view. Apartment is part of large will with ternis/svimming pool.	RULLY FUSINESHED, MAID, 4 bedroom near beach and mountains. US$450 per week available August - Se- prember Call or Fax: +47-30-151237

FOR THE CONNOISSBUR TUSCANY CHANT? In vineyard, old coftages, totally re-stored for weekly rest, beautiful coun-nyards, private lale. Near florence -Senz. English and German spokes. Fac-(39-577) 738051. Tel: [39-577] 738232.

in the reast beautiful part of France.
Luxurous character houses heated pools - tennis - idylin settings.
For punchase, rentral & management English resident specialists for the Dordogne & Lot Place 9 Pierre, 45300 Gourdon, France
Tel (33) 65414611, Fasx 65414570

- PROVENCE - GORDES Lusurous with with spectroaler view of Luberon, bested pool (Zhin x śm) extenśwe gordens & terroos, 3 bothrooms, souno, siespa 89. AVALLABLE MOM.
Mortifry/weethy. Mercades with chastfeur, mad & cook credibble. Tel (33)
90 72 02 36. Fex (33) 90 72 03 22

TO RENT, CANNES CALIFORNE Apartment on ground floor, gorden, 2 rooms (4 persons) of comforts, cir conditioning, France south, July: F12,000, Angust F15,000. Sept. F7,000, Tet. 93 43 60 47

CANNES UNIQUE VILLA in did Suquet quarter (12th century) overlooking the Crossite and the Boy of Conset, 750 sq.m., 4 bedrooms, 2 latchers, pool, gorden, 9-cor parturg, Miles of AGM: 33-93-63-72-43. Fax: 33-93-63-650

COTE D'AZUR necr Volbanne. Beauthul Provence formhouse, 4 beds, 3 boths, large pool & gentlens. August/Sept. Tel owner: V3/7 2384 Fau, V3/7 7221. 15/7-31/8. 7 KM DEAUVILLE Beau-thul monar, 12 bedrooms, 7 ha park, sea view. Tel: provinces 31 87 04 27. GREAT BRITAIN MUSICIAN'S exceptional Kensington (London) flat, Available weekands or by carangement. Tel: UK 71 937 0580. Tel: 128 14.57.14.57.52

Imprimé par Offprint, 73 rue de l'Evangile, 75018 Paris.

PROVENCE-LUBERON Rent long or short term Pool, 5 double beds, large terraces, elightful situation. £ 300 per person per week (staff optional). Tel: 33 98 38 13 16

HOLIDAY RENTALS PARIS & SUBURBS

PARIS & SUBURISS

PARIS, CN RISE DE RIVOUI rest haly equipped 3-room flat, heart of the city laby, August, September. 5 min Notire dame, near shoat 3 muraportaions. F4,000/mo + charges, 1 month deposit, references required. Paris (33-1) 42 77 54 43 Provinces (33) 85 48 34 14

PARIS 8 min EYOEE spectocular stroll pied à terre for couple with 60 sq.m. flowered terrace. Lift, air conditioning, cable 1V. Fossibility, porting, 15th of laby to 15th September. FF15,000 net monthly. Tell/frox Paris [1] 45 20 88 40

MONITPARNASSE deal for family, 100 sq.m., 2 bedrooms, magnificant view, porking, 1914 75, 1858 40

MONITPARNASSE deal for family, 100 sq.m., 2 bedrooms, magnificant view, porking, 1914 74,000 weekly. Call Martine or Jean Jacques office. [1] 4888 9998 home. 4322 6111 75th, NEAR ST GERMAIN DES PRES, nice 75 sq.m., aportment, 2 bedrooms, 10 personner.

nice 75 sq.m. opertment, 2 bedrooms, full both, very quiet and sunny. JULY-AUGUST. FF5.600/mo net. Tel Brussels (22-2) 375 44 15 or (33-1) 47 65 48 21 (27.2) 375 44 15 of (35-11 4* (12 46 21)
ON PLACE DES VOSGES, chorming operiment, 6 rooms, 34 people. 7th July to 7th September, 1900 per mosth Tet. (1) 42 78 54 22.

LOVELY STUDIO, near Roland Gorros & Bois de Boulogne, bedroom, highen/borfs, July-Aug-September, F3500. Tel: 1-4825-40.25 from 7-10 per person of the person PORTE D'ORLEANS, MED JULY to MED AUGUST, 4/5 rooms, full South, verw on gorden, near Metro, 10 min Mont-pornosse, F15,000. Tel (1) 4543 1275

ARRAIS, short lets during JUNE-JULY AUGUST, 70 sq.m. oil comfort F3,500/week. Tel (1) 48 87 64 82 F3.500/week. Tel (f) 48 87 64 82

IARSE MODERN STUDIO on gordens, dose to Lucembourg Gordens. Short or long term. Tel: 1-53.44.1.23

QUAL DE LA TOURNELLE, own-looking Noire Dome, 45 sq.m., fully equipped. July/Aug. F8,000/mp. 1-4579.625

ETOBE - STUDIO - QUIET, SUNNY, oil conforts, 7th floor, no elevator. 1-31 Augt. F3,200. Tel: 1-45.74 40 47. SPAIN

HEART OF MADESD flat for rest. July/ Aug. 55 sq.m. fully equipped, impec-cable. $950/month. Tel 341-2655888 SWITZERLAND

LAUSANNE - SWITZERLAND Lovely 5-room duples operment, fully egupped + furnehed, central, beautiful view, oroliable Aug + Sept. 92. Machilly rent: $2210 (+ Tel). Tel: [41+21] 648 57 92. U.S.A

EAST HAMPTON, N.Y. Becutiful, exquately furnished, new circonditioned villa (5009 sq. ft.) Has old lation wall complex with grotics, large heated pool on 2+ very private cores. Perfect for entertaining, Walk or bits to open basch 3 to 4 bedrooms, 6% boths, Sole price furnished: $2,900,000, Rental Leby 528,000. August first Labor Day $25,000. Call owner 212-684-2222 or 516-324-8850 USA. or >10-524-8530 U.S.A.
NYC/BROOKLYN/PROSPECT HTS. 1 bedroom gorden opartment in calturobly diverse area revis by day, week, month. Sleeps 4. 30-mante sathwoy nde to mel-Menhation. References;
Europe, Jopan, Lotin America. Tel718-785-5717 U.S.A.

CONTILLA MONTHAL MONTHAL 7(8-98-9/7 USA)

OUTHAMPTON ESTATE Very luxurious European style house, 5 bedrooms, 5% both, big avenuing pool, tennis court, cook/med., month of August, 546,000 US. Call NY 212-77-7973 or Southampion 516-283-3059.

7973 or Southampton 516-285-3397.
NEW YORK CITY Greenwich Village Studio oportnent, Booking for Aug. 1, 3507 weekly, lachen, quolity elevator building. Mortin Soldcoor for neurobunding. Mortin Soldcoor for neurobunding. 718-334-1969 or 914-434-1300.
SOUTHAMPTON AUG 7-31 Begant 5 bedroom/Private 2 ocres-Heated pool/moid-5 min, beach 8 lown. $35,000. Fax: 212-758-3997 USA.

HOLIDAYS & TRAVEL appears

PERSONALS

CAD. Till the next operation. DD

AMERICAN CITIZENS:
Absence Voling Information.
The US embossy in Poris urges
Americans to vote in the general electron later this year. Those who like chroad are secontaged to register now and apoly for observe bolloss.

Assistance and further information should be a formation of the condition of the proposes of consulates. Phone or visit the office.

Tel 49-49-747808. Fox 49-49-752974

Conspicates, Priore or Visit fire Visiting Assistance Officer.
In Paris, phone 42 96 12 02, or visit the office of Avenaca Services, 2 rue Soint Florentin, comer of rue de litvoli.

* * OLYMPIC TICKETS* * Buy/Sel 3 43 487 2678 Barcelona, Spain ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS English speaking meetings delity. Tel: PARIS 46 34 97 65 or ROME 678 0320.

SATELLITE TV RIVIERA SATELLITE Monoco to St Tropez. Quotity scielline installations & monitenance. Rent from 1077/day. New Arabo MBC channel R. Monos. Tel (+33) 9378/78/00. Fax 93.25.46/74

trans euro Top CMMI member in Europe; agents for United Van Lines, Groet Movers Ini'l & American Ini'l.

AGS A.G.S. LONDON: 44 (81) 961 7595 A.G.S. PARIS 33 (1) 40 80 20 40 A.G.S. BERLIN: 49 (37) 220 342 410 A.G.S. NBCE 33 73 64 57 40

PARIS (1) 39569000

SHOP-IN-THE-SHOP IN THE HEART OF EUROPE

For details contact Mr S.P., Keller, director and representative, Mayor Muller Ltd. transferitootstrasse 6, 07-8001 Zuna Tal [41] 1 251 90 60 Fax [41] 1 261 26 91

OFFSHORE BY LAWYEIS FROM £175
One of the world's largest registration agents can provide robustonal Nomania, Administrational and Augustered Office Services for a comprehensive brachers Franc: UK 71 352 2260 Sparcer Company Formations Un Scarpio House, 102 Sydney St., Chelson London SW3 6NJ. Tol. UK 71 362 2274.

INTERNATIONAL CLASSIFIED

OPPORTUNITIES COFFEE MUG AND T-SHERT FOTOS, ANNOUNCEMENTS

ERISH NON-RESIDENT. COMPANIES £195

Ideal tax-avoidance vehicles low orafile, tox free & European. Scitable for trading, consultancy and other activities. For immediate service contact:

Tel: +353 1 618490 Fax: 618493 OFFSHORE

Companies for all purposes including banking and issurance. We offer 30 years professional expensive work-vide. Brachure on request.

ASTON CORPORATE MANAGEMENT 19, Peel Road, Dogglas, lide of Man. Jel: 0624 625 126 MOVING WE ESTABLISH YOUR BUSINESS IN GERMANY Full office, morketing and noncomment services. Avoil - Phone - Fox - Service IBS Geabth, Bod Scelent Fronkfart, Fox In: Germany +49-6196-63601

SCAT MOVERCHAFTS, Length: 3-4 matres. Files 35-40 mph over land, water, so & snow. Ex-stocks from USS6,000. Distributors wanted. Tel: (69) 3398388. Franc (69) 3396755.

BOOST YOUR SALES IIII Fondank pew soles lead commercian. Fontance new soles lead generating modists, ideal for all soles people & companies. For details FAX; UK 602 244513 SAN JOSE, COSTA RICA, AMERICANSTYLE BAR/RESTALRANT,
DOWNTOWN, 30 sq.m. Please lex:
21 4596 or Apartedo 1584-1000
Coste Roc CA.
HOTEL RESTALIBANT Fronce. Large dening room, oil comforts, 5 min from beaches. Prico negoticole. Hotel
Abergo, Mare Corretti, ove F & M
Curie, F-86700 St Lairent du Vor
10/20 YEARS LEMBING SOURCE
coolable and provide bank collisteral.
Fas application: Turkey 901 ZP9 18 71

BELISTANTICO COMMUNICATION.

interdean MOVES

OPPORTUNITIES

REAL ESTATE PROBLEMS?

Over one billion dollars worth of real estate currently under management and tharty years in business.

If you have problem ned estate in the Southeastern U.S. we will sell you with the can do to solve problems without obligation. TEST THE SWISS MARKET
WITHOUT A LONGTERN COMMITMENT I
Skownoon space problede on a monifor-month basis to exhalt your products in conjunction with our distinguish rugs. Studied in 2000 SWITZERAND, lemmediate vicinity of world framous Behnkelstrame, well fraquented the celemine display window. Highly suitable for acclarive furniture, designer goods, onliques. LONDON ADDRESS SONO STREET. Mail, Phone, Fox, Telex, Conference room, Tel: 071 499 9192 Frx: 499 7517 CAPITAL AVAILABLE

> LOANS UP TO $20,000 credible to cryone. Contact Zoline Group S.A. Fax: 34-5-2822835 EMPLOYMENT EXECUTIVE POSITIONS AVAILABLE MARKET CONSULTANT for Interna-pool Cosmetic Surgery Group. Excel-tant knowledge of French, Paris based, trovel possibilities, for a Paris inter-vely, peace phone our London direc-44-71-724-1851.

BUSINESS SERVICES

EXECUTIVES AVAILABLE CANADIAN 30, in Germany mon-voted, selfectore, excellent consum-cation, organizational skills in starch for firm looking for a mortisting rep-resentative in Europe, computer, takeon, electronics, technical eng-nearing. Eddi Gallian. +49-40. 7606070 Fox TODAY's

REAL ESTATE MARKETPLACE

Pages 7 et 8

EMPLOYMENT : GENERAL POSITIONS

GENERAL POSITIONS WANTED

FEMALE GRADUATE IN Economeines, 37, well up in modern longuages ex-perience in writing seets a job. Refer-ences upon request. J.v.d. Bij. William de Zwigerloon 36, Voorschoten. 2252 VR, NI. (or cdB [31] 20 6744799

SECRETARIAL POSITIONS AVAILABLE

DO YOU NEED A TOP SECRETARY? and all other efficient bilingual or trilingual personnel. Calk Maud, GR Interim, Paris (1) 47 58 82 30.

EDUCATIONAL POSITIONS WANTED DUPERENCIED FRENCH TEACHER /Interpreter / Golde in Poris, seeks serious position leading French to businessmen. cost/or family during July/August. Tel/Faze [1] 42 73 79 78.

DOMESTIC POSITIONS AVAILABLE AMBASSADOR RECRIPRES a House-monoger/Butter and a Maid / Lour-deres for full-time duties in residence in Brusses. Live-in occasimodation ovaloble. Couple: preferred. Please Steply Box 2816, LH.T., 92521 Neufly Catter, France with CV. Full references will be required at interview.

AUTO RENTALS

RENT FROM DERGI AUTO WEEKIND, IF 515 SPECIAL OFFER - 7 DAYS; IF 900 PARKS TEL: (1) 45 87 27 04

AVIATION 1990 ABROSPATIALE TORAGO. 89 botel hours. Digital King FR: 2 00155. GS, KN64, K087, K176A. 10 in grid out, Not. 1 100,000, (202) 282-4479. Fox (602) 282-0150 USA. ARTS

Bush Record Diplomacy less Vision, More Instinct

The bloom strapes

The state of the s

The second second · ja Patra

Property of the second Mark Mark

Reactive Presidency fore Comfortable Wie Nd Cold-Har Structure B Thomas Francis

ENTROTO BANDUIC BOOK STATE OF THE STATE The Course of th A STATE OF THE STA The state of the s The state of the s Million Back to the second of the second sec STATE OF THE PARTY PRIOR HE A COLOR OF THE PARTY OF THE PAR Section 1 THE STATE OF THE S

> tesh's tecord Mar 2 59 704 SELECT STATE AND ADDRESS OF THE PARTY. Series -The state of the s を記されば、 (まつか) シッカ タラム 本族 基 The last the same of the same The last the same of the same Mineral Control of State Additional of State of Selection of the second Mar micro de George Prog. a. v. Auth. M

pident ut

1日 are ger human in the wee illi film tich eki axet nient Transcon in L. Der men lawasan dan arang arang 🗸 単地 かいごな しゃか と 内を 音輪 TENERS SLIGHT CONTROL OF THE PARTY OF THE PA Barrier of the second the best of the Court of Bank &

可以可以 (10 mm) (10 mm) (10 mm) 图图图数 (10 mm) (10 mm)

Secretary Williams BEAUTIFICATION OF THE PERSON 有時下海 1 2021 2011 中 to the second se para Carried THE REAL PROPERTY AND ADDRESS OF THE PERSON ADDRESS OF THE PERSON AND ADDRESS OF THE PERSON AD

Service of the servic are product as the second of t special the recovery in the second to be bed the second to be bed The finer here are a season of the per place to the second of the person of the See BUSHL Page 4

Russia's Young by Colecting Bondan SENTONO STOYE P. - intelle -ing

- 272 -1100

NIAM. 3. 10° 11

ca sense de Caracia de la companya d THE WORK TABLE The other Country of Property of State of State

As Tokyo W

David E Sanger

TOKYO Interfect The Sanger

Bond to be ill perfect the sanger

Bond to be interfect to the sanger

Bond to be interfect to the sanger

Bond to be interfect the sanger

Bond to be interfect to the sanger

China in the 1990.

Bond to be only year sanger

Bond to be ill perfect the sanger

Bond the sanger

Bond to be ill perfect the sanger

Bond the sanger

Bond

Chief of the logs of the government of the most possess of the government of the governm